Teaching Literature and Language Through Multimodal Texts

Domínguez Romero, Elena, Bobkina, Jelena, Stefanova, Svetlana, 2018-08-17 In the past few decades there has been a growing interest in the benefits of linking the learning of a foreign language to the study of its literature. However, the incorporation of literary texts into language curriculum is not easy to tackle. As a result, it is vital to explore the latest developments in text-based teaching in which language culture and literature are taught as a continuum. Teaching Literature and Language Through Multimodal Texts provides innovative insights into multiple language teaching modalities for the teaching of language through literature in the context of primary, secondary and higher education. It covers a wide range of good practice and innovative ideas and offers insights on the impact of such practice on learners with the intention to inspire other teachers to reconsider their own teaching practices. It is a vital reference source for educators, professionals, school administrators, researchers and practitioners interested in teaching literature and language through multimodal texts.

Jumpstart! Spanish and Italian Catherine Watts, Hilary Phillips, 2014-03-26 Jumpstart Spanish and Italian presents a collection of simple to use multi-sensory games and activities which will jumpstart students' understanding of modern languages in action. If you are one of the thousands of teachers looking for a range of practical and fun ideas to teach languages engagingly, then this is also the perfect book for you. A range of innovative ideas to help you set the scene in your language classroom are presented first. These are followed by a feast of short and simple activities designed to help you make quick starts with your students and hold their attention. The focus throughout is on communicative action, bringing languages alive with all activities presented in two languages, Spanish and Italian. Specifically written to help teachers work within the guidelines of the new curriculum, activities in the book will help pupils to listen, respond and understand key elements of the target language. Speak in phrases and sentences with appropriate pronunciation. Express and communicate simple ideas with clarity. Write phrases and short sentences. Develop an understanding of basic grammar. Learn songs and simple poems in the language studied. Engage in active learning through a range of varied activities. Jumpstart Spanish and Italian will celebrate the joys of language and coherent expression of finding just the right words or phrases to express what you want to say.

100 Ideas for Early Years Practitioners: Supporting EAL Learners Marianne Sargent, 2016-05-19 There are more than one million children in UK schools who speak English as an additional language (EAL) and this number is continually rising. Many early years practitioners are unsure about how best to support these children and need guidance to do this with confidence. This book offers advice on how to welcome and provide for children with EAL and how to support their families, taking into consideration their unique identities and culture and ensuring that these are preserved and appreciated in the setting. With links to all areas of the curriculum and specific focus on language acquisition, each idea is straightforward and can be easily adapted and developed to suit children's individual needs. It is an essential guide for all practitioners in early years settings to raise your competence and confidence in providing for EAL learners.
