Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials

Literacy Essentials Regie Routman, 2023-10-10 In her practical and inspirational book Literacy Essentials Engagement Excellence and Equity for All Learners author Regie Routman guides K 12 teachers to create a trusting intellectual and equitable classroom culture that allows all learners to thrive as self directed readers writers thinkers and responsible citizens Over the course of three sections Routman provides numerous Take Action ideas for implementing authentic and responsive teaching assessing and learning This book poses a key question How do we rise to the challenge of providing an engaging excellent equitable education for all learners including those from high poverty and underserved schools Teaching for Engagement Many high performing schools are characterized by a a thriving school culture built on a network of authentic communication Teachers can strengthen classroom engagement by building a trusting and welcoming environment where all students can have a safe and collaborative space to grow and develop Pursuing Excellence Routman identifies 10 key factors that describe an excellent teacher ranging from intellectual curiosity to creativity and explains how carrying yourself as a role model contributes to an inclusive caring empathic and fair classroom She also stresses the importance for school leaders to make job embedded professional development a top priority Dismantling Unequal Education The huge gap in the quality of education in high vs low income communities is the civil rights issue of the 21st century according to Routman She spells out specific actions educators can take to create more equitable schools and classrooms such as diversifying texts used in curriculums and ensuring all students have access to opportunities to discuss reflect and engage with important ideas From the author I wrote Literacy Essentials because I saw a need to simplify teaching raise expectations and make expert teaching possible for all of us I saw a need to emphasize how a school culture of kindness trust respect and curiosity is essential to any lasting achievement I saw a need to demonstrate and discuss how and why the beliefs actions knowledge we hold determine the potential for many of our students Equal opportunity to learn depends on a culture of engagement and equity which under lies a relentless pursuit of excellence

Stakeholders' Perspectives on Assessment and Improvement of Quality in Early Childhood Education and Care: A World-Wide Kaleidoscope Antonia Elisabeth Enikoe Baumeister, Hui Li, Linda Joan Harrison, 2024-08-29 The key aims of early childhood education and care ECEC are to offer children from all social backgrounds a good start in their lives to support parenting as well as families workforce participation and thereby to sustainably strengthen the national economy over current and future generations High quality ECEC has been shown to improve child outcomes and be a buffer against developmental risk factors For these reasons governments ECEC providers and researchers are placing an increasing focus on the frameworks and systems that underpin quality as well as the measures that assess quality At the same time however research on ECEC as a multidisciplinary endeavor has shown that the aims and benefits of high quality ECEC can only be reached when all stakeholders needs are acknowledged and sufficiently met For example recent evidence suggests that the acceptability and social validity of quality assessment and improvement methods are contested among some stakeholders and thus the sustainability of these quality efforts may be in doubt New challenges also include the ever changing nature and circumstances affecting ECEC stakeholders for example the greater flows of refugee families and the impact of the Covid 19 pandemic This Frontiers Research Topic will contribute to an updated knowledge base in order to inform governments providers and the scientific community about best practices and new solutions for conceptualizing measuring and improving ECEC quality The aim of the proposed Research Topic is to generate a worldwide kaleidoscope of research studies that explore and discuss models for gathering the perspectives of multiple stakeholders and considering the meaningfulness of stakeholder views for conceptualizing assessing and improving quality in ECEC We believe that greater attention needs to be given to the diversity of stakeholders who are invested in ECEC including government regulatory authorities service providers educators families communities and children We also believe that wide ranging stakeholder input will generate innovative methods for assessing and improving quality that keep pace with our rapidly changing information society Two further foci are set on ECEC practices 1 that support participation diversity and inclusion of all children and families and 2 that are suitable for developing countries and diverse populations within countries In this the focus is not only on best practices but also on the limitations of practices In soliciting research articles on ECEC stakeholder perspectives we describe stakeholders as inclusive of government non government regulatory agencies service providers teachers and caregivers families communities and children Themes of interest include but are not limited to Assessment of quality in ECEC including self assessment approaches The design of and use of quality frameworks in ECEC Effects of quality and of quality improvement on children and families Drivers and indicators of quality improvement Acceptance and sustainability of quality efforts among ECEC stakeholders Policy expectations of quality rating and improvement systems e g funding policy The role of teacher and caregiver professionalization All types of center based and home based ECEC We are interested both in quantitative and qualitative research designs as well as in mixed methods research Cross sectional longitudinal quasi experimental and case study designs are welcome The following article types are welcome original research empirical studies systematic reviews community case studies policy briefs articles and brief research reports
