Al-Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence Abu Hamid Al-Ghazali, 2019-06 Al Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence is the thirty fourth chapter of the Revival of the Religious Sciences Ihya Ulum al Din which is widely regarded as the greatest work of Muslim spirituality In Al Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence Abu Hamid al Ghazali considers two themes dear to Islamic devotional literature poverty and abstinence Taking as his example the Prophet's love for the poor Ghazali explains that poverty is not simply an accidental state of destitution that might befall anyone but rather an inner acceptance of the Will of God and a form of abstinence for His sake Thus the life of poverty described by Ghazali in Al Ghazali on Poverty and Abstinence refers to what every devoted follower of the Prophet is meant to adopt whatever his or her outer state may be In this new edition the Islamic Texts Society has included the translation of Abu Hamid al Ghazali's own Introduction to the Revival of the Religious Sciences which gives the reasons that caused him to write the work the structure of the whole of the Revival and places each of the chapters in the context of the others

Dear Beloved Son Abu Hamid al-Ghazali, 2022-03-13 Dear Beloved Son is an excellent compilation of extremely valuable pieces of advice based not only on theory but on the practical experience and insight of Imam al Ghazali Since he presented his disciple with these pieces of advice at a stage in life where he had studied and excelled in all major sciences of Islam it holds extra significance He covers topics such as sincerity knowledge action death da wah hypocrisy time dhikr and Deliverance from Error & Mystical Union with the Almighty Imam Ghazali, 2023-04-04 Abu Hamid Muhammad al Ghazali's Deliverance from Error and Attachment to the Lord of Might and Majesty successfully allows the reader a concise and informative window into the life of a great scholar. Deliverance from Error translated from the Arabic al Munqidh min ad Dalal by W Montgomery Watt is an autobiographical account of Ghazali's struggle during a period of spiritual unrest in his life that begins with him as a teacher at a prestigious academic institution at the age of thirty three, continues through his ascetic wanderings and concludes upon his return to his teaching career but now as a complete God-orientated man rather than a person on the plain of native and second-hand belief. The book opens with Ghazali replying to a colleague who had questioned him regarding the aims and inmost nature of sciences and the perplexing depths of the religious systems and the reasons for Ghazali's actions at this stage of his life. He is an enquiring man who subjects all to his scrutinising eye. This habit and custom he describes as a God-given nature, a matter of temperament and not of my choice or contriving. With this outlook he starts to question the different types of knowledge around him. He systematically and diligently tackles each science which influences man's spiritual religious mindset, covering the four main sciences of the time: theology, authoritative instruction, philosophy and mysticism, all of which continue to play significant roles today. The analysis is carried out in detail, unbiased and authoritatively as Ghazali studied and authored in most of the fields of his investigation. He dissects each science like a skilled surgeon and then delivers his post-surgery evaluation with accuracy and precision. A passage which distils the essence of his spiritual journey can be found in Section 4, The Ways of Mysticism. I learnt with certainty that it is above all the mystics who walk on the road of God, their life is the best life, their method the soundest, their character the purest. Character indeed were the intellect of the intellectuals and the learning of the learned and the scholarship of the scholars who are versed in the profundities of revealed truth. Bought together in the attempt to improve the life and character of the mystics, they would find no way of doing so for to the mystics, all movement and all rest, whether external or internal, brings an illumination from the light of the lamp of prophetic revelation and behind the light of prophetic revelation there is no other light on the face of the earth from which illumination may be received. A chapter on the nature of Prophecy follows which highlights its compelling need. He discusses sensual and intellectual perceptions, their development in humans from simple to complex and they end where divine inspiration and revelation begin. The methodology used to explain this spectrum of perceptions is both simple and effective and allows the reader to follow the thought pattern of the author. A concluding chapter on Ghazali's return to teaching also tackles and in fact successfully deals with possible rebuttals of the hypothesis that he postulates on the need for prophetic leadership. As an expert in each of the fields, his replies to the various groups are from their own teachings, doctrines and methodology.
