Using Literature to Learn and Teach Language Carol Griffiths, 2024-04-30 This accessibly written textbook uses the intrinsic appeal of a story to engage students with language and provides teachers with the background knowledge and the skills to use literature to construct lessons for their classes which integrate all four skills plus language awareness in an enjoyable way Although a number of books and studies have examined the value of using literature to learn language literature remains under represented as a language learning resource The author argues that the accumulated body of literature represents a bottomless pit of potential material just waiting to be recognised and enjoyed From a teacher s point of view a lesson based on a literary work can provide an integrated approach to language development which few other approaches can match A piece of literature can be used to develop all four skills both receptive and productive reading writing listening speaking as well as production skills and language awareness This book will be an essential resource for pre service and in service teachers teacher trainers students and scholars of Applied Linguistics Language Education TESOL and related subjects

Representations of Anne Frank in American Literature Rachael McLennan, 2016-08-05 This book explores portrayals of Anne Frank in American literature where she is often invoked if problematically as a means of encouraging readers to think widely about persecution genocide and victimisation often in relation to gender ethnicity and race It shows how literary representations of Anne Frank in America over the past 50 years reflect the continued dominance of the American dramatic adaptations of Frank's Diary in the 1950s and argues that authors feel compelled to engage with the problematic elements of these adaptations and their iconic power At the same time though literary representations of Frank are associated with the adaptations critics often assume that these texts unquestioningly perpetuate the problems with the adaptations This is not true This book examines how American authors represent Frank in order to negotiate difficult questions relating to representation of the Holocaust in America and in order to consider gender coming of age and forms of inequality in American culture in various historical moments and of course to consider the ways Frank herself is represented in America This book argues that the most compelling representations of Frank in American literature are alert to their own limitations and may caution against making Frank a universal symbol of goodness or setting up too easy identifications with her It will be of great interest to researchers and students of Frank the Holocaust in American fiction and culture gender studies life writing young adult fiction and ethics      The New Heroines Katheryn Wright,2016-03-21 This book explores how the next generation of teen and young adult heroines in popular culture are creating a new feminist ideal for the 21st century Representations of a teenage girl who is unique or special occur again and again in coming of age stories It s an irresistible concept the heroine who seems just like every other but under the surface she has the potential to change the world This book examines the cultural significance of teen and young adult female characters the New Heroines in popular culture The book addresses a wide range of examples primarily from the past two decades with several chapters focusing on a specific heroic figure in popular culture In addition the author offers a comparative analysis between the New Woman figure from the late 19th and early 20th century and the New Heroine in the 21st century Readers will understand how representations of teenage girls in fiction and nonfiction are positioned as heroic because of their ability to find out about themselves by connecting with other people their environment and technology      Novel Writing Prep Monica Leonelle,2018-08-29 For creative fiction writers who are writing their next novel Novel Writing Prep by USAT bestselling author Monica Leonelle takes you step by step through planning your novel over the course of 30 days You may be wondering is it possible to write 50 000 words in 30 days without it being a crap draft Yes You can write 50 000 good words on your novel in as little as a month as long as you prepare yourself After helping thousands of authors develop the skills to hit huge word counts in a short period of time I ve found one thing in common across all authors at all skill levels from those who have never written a novel to those who publish professionally This one thing not only helps writers get their book to make sense and read well on paper but also helps them write it faster in the first place And it s simple You must know what you are going to write before you write it That s it The results Most writers can at least double their writing speed some can triple it meaning they can do twice as many words in the same time period as they were doing before Additionally these writers encounter fewer bouts of writer s block and are more likely to see their book in print down the line Novel Writing Prep takes you through a simple flexible easy to implement outlining process that will give you a skeleton of ideas for completing a marathon writing month And best of all you can go through all 30 planning prompts in just a few minutes a day over 30 days or you can complete a pizza and netflix and writing binge over a weekend Doesn t matter your skill level your writing experience or how you prefer to write a first draft For plotters pantsers newbies veterans and everyone in between let Novel Writing Prep help you plan your novel before writing it so you can write an awesome book faster Are you ready to go all in and say yes to a fun filled exciting productive adventure in writing The world needs your book Grab Novel Writing Prep today and make it happen
