

GRACE Sermon Outlines

Based on the book by Max Lucado

Using this Tool:

Surely the best sermons are those forged through personal study and experiences with God. A sermon that bears the passion and refinement that comes from a heart captured by the message is a sermon that will stir and change lives. We wouldn't presume to write your sermon for you. We know neither your context, the story of the people you'll be speaking to, nor the journey of faith you're on. So we've refined the message into an outline with key concepts, supporting Scripture, references, and quotes from Max's book on God's best idea, grace. We recommend reading the corresponding chapters in GRACE as you prepare for each week's sermon.

You may choose to correlate your sermon series with the GRACE DVD-Based Study Kit in the weekly small groups or Bible studies that meet within your church. That way small group members will have additional reinforcement for their discussions during the week.

Introduction:

Grace.

We talk as though we understand the term. The bank gives us a grace period. The seedy politician falls from grace. Musicians speak of a grace note. We describe an actress as gracious, a dancer as graceful. We use the word for hospitals, baby girls, kings, and premeal prayers. We talk as though we know what grace means.

But do we really understand it? Have our churches settled for a wimpy grace? It politely occupies a phrase in a hymn, fits nicely on a church sign. Never causes trouble or demands a response. When asked, "Do you believe in grace?" who could say no?

Max Lucado asks a deeper question. Have you and your congregation been changed by grace? Shaped by grace? Strengthened by grace? Emboldened by grace? Softened by grace? Snatched by the nape of your neck and shaken to your senses by grace?

Grace is the voice that calls us to change and then gives us the power to pull it off.

Let's make sure that grace gets you.
