Musulmanes Et Modernes:

Biographie Universelle, Ancienne Et Moderne ,1857      Women, Gender, and Language in Morocco Fatima Sadiqi,2003

This text is an original investigation in the complex relationship between women gender and language in a Muslim multilingual and multicultural setting Moroccan women s use of monolingualism oral literature and multilingualism code switching reflects their agency and gender role subversion in a heavily patriarchal society      Islam and Secularity Nilüfer Göle,2015-10-23 In Islam and Secularity Nil fer G le takes on two pressing issues the transforming relationship between Islam and Western secular modernity and the impact of the Muslim presence in Europe G le shows how the visibility of Islamic practice in the European public sphere unsettles narratives of Western secularism As mutually constitutive Islam and secularism permeate each other the effects of which play out in embodied and aesthetic practices and are accompanied by fear anxiety and violence In this timely book G le illuminates the recent rethinking of secularism and religion of modernity and resistance to it of the public significance of sexuality and of the shifting terrain of identity in contemporary Europe

Plural and Shared: The Sociology of a Cosmopolitan World Vincenzo Cicchelli,2018-11-26 We live in a globalized world in which a person in Burkina Faso can identify with Star Wars heroes and in which a New York trader drinks the same Starbucks coffee as his Taiwanese counterpart How are individuals socialized in Rome Bombay and Tokyo To answer this question a unique investigation has been carried out using two scales of analysis usually tackled separately by global studies the scale of the cosmopolitan world and its global narratives imaginaries iconographies as well as the scale of everyday life and socialization to otherness This two fold perspective constitutes the innovative approach of this volume that endeavors to address an operationalization of the cosmopolitan perspective and reacts to current debates and new research findings With a Foreword by Natan Sznaider This book was first published in 2016 as Pluriel et commun Sociologie d un monde cosmopolite by Les Presses de Sciences Po Paris Other editions the book is also published in Italian as Plurale e comune Sociologia di un mondo cosmopolita by Morlacchi editore Perugia 2018 and in Portuguese as Plural e comum Sociologia de um mundo cosmopolita by Edi es Sesc Sao Paulo 2018 Plural and Shared The Sociology of a Cosmopolitan World is now available in paperback for individual customers      Young Muslim Change-Makers William Baryllo,2017-07-20 The Muslim charity sector is stronger than ever attracting thousands of volunteers and millions of pounds in donations In times of mobile internet and social media young people have set up small scale charities in urban areas providing general social services to Muslims and non Muslims alike Breaking away from bureaucratic non governmental organisations and traditional faith based charities these smaller local associations are an attractive alternative to young people This book offers an exploration of the Muslim charity sector from multi million pound NGOs to discrete grassroots charities who are quietly giving rise to the next generation of Muslim entrepreneurs scholars politicians and other influencers From studies of eleven charities across France Poland and the UK it investigates key questions around this young and dynamic movement What motivates these young

Muslim volunteers What shapes the socially engaged behaviour of young Muslims What is the place and the role of Islam in their involvement and commitment to their causes What social impact do these organisations have in their local area How do they understand religion faith participation and citizenship What challenges do they face and how do they overcome these The book also examines how these grassroots are successful in helping to prevent extremism curb Islamophobia and challenge colonialism The analysis of these small local and original initiatives is fundamental in understanding the role of religiosity for these younger generations who are trying to articulate their multiple identities cultures and traditions in a modern secular society Rich detailed and vivid the book sheds new lights on a popular field of research unveiling exclusive key information on the subject of young European Muslims Difference and Democracy Kolja Raube, Annika Sattler, 2011-11 As Europe becomes increasingly diverse understanding the effects of differences among citizens within European democracy crucial The contributors to Difference and Democracy take a novel interdisciplinary approach to this important dimension of social interaction drawing on political science sociology communications studies legal studies and art history Contrary to alarmist accounts of difference in Europe these essays explore its potentially positive impact outlining the conditions under which differences could lead to effective and legitimate political action Race and Ethnicity: Integration, adaptation and change Harry Goulbourne, 2001 Multireligious Society Francisco Colom Gonzalez, Gianni D'Amato, 2016-10-04 With the theory of secularization increasingly contested as a plausible development at a global scale this book focuses on the changing significance of the religious element within a context of complex diversity This concept reflects the rationale behind the deep transformations that have taken place in the dynamics of social change giving way to a recombination of social political and cultural cleavages that overlap and compete for legitimacy at a national and supranational level Far from disappearing with modernization new forms of religious diversity have emerged that continue to demand specific policies from the state putting pressure on the established practices of religious governance while creating a series of normative dilemmas European societies have been a testing ground for many of these changes but for decades Canada has been viewed as a pioneering country in the management of diversity thus offering some interesting similarities and contrasts with the former Accordingly the book deals with the diverging routes that political secularization has followed in Europe and Canada the patterns of religious governance that can be recognized in each region and the practices for accommodating the demands of religious minorities concerning their legal regulation the management of public institutions and the provision of social services Women's Rituals and Ceremonies in Shiite Iran and Muslim Communities Pedram Khosronejad, 2015 In this volume the authors present and discuss different aspects of their field researches and experiences in regard to the women's rituals and devotional practices One of the main aims of this book is to broaden our understanding of women's devotional life as well as calling attention to its relation to general social change Most of the contributions are based on field researches direct observations and rituals participations This gives the reader a unique opportunity for better understanding of methodological challenges related to gender issues and field research among Muslim communities Women and Religion in the West Dr Giselle Vincett, Dr Kristin Aune, Dr Sonya Sharma, 2013-05-28 What is the relationship between women and secularization In the West women are abandoning traditional religion Yet they continue to make up the majority of religious adherents Accounting for this seeming paradox is the focus of this volume If women undergird the foundations of religion but are leaving in large numbers why are they leaving Where are they going What are they doing And what is happening to those who remain Women and Religion in the West addresses a neglected yet crucial issue within the debate on religious belonging and departure the role of women in and out of religion and spirituality Beginning with an analysis of the relationship between gender and secularization the book moves its focus to in depth examination of women's experiences based on data from key recent qualitative work on women and religion This volume addresses not only women's place in and out of Christianity the normal focus of secularization theories but also alternative spiritualities and Islam asking how questions of secularization differ between faith systems This book offers students and scholars of religion sociology and women's studies as well as interested general readers an accessible work on the religiosity of western women and contributes fresh analyses of the rapidly shifting terrain of contemporary religion and spirituality

Women, Religion, and the State in Contemporary Turkey Chiara Maritato, 2020-05-28 Tracing the centrality of women in the definition of Turkish secularism this study investigates the 2003 decision to increase the number of women officers employed by the Presidency of Religious Affairs Diyanet It explores how as professional religious officers the female Diyanet preachers epitomize a pious modern and highly educated woman whose role in society has been raised to prominence Based on extensive fieldwork in Turkey and drawing on a rich ethnography of the activities conducted by Diyanet women preachers in Istanbul Chiara Maritato disentangles the state's attempt to standardize a multifaceted female religious participation In using the feminization of the Diyanet as a prism through which to understand the significance of a renewed presence of Islam in the Turkish public realm she casts light on a broader reformulation of religious services for women and families in Turkey and pinpoints how this pervasive moral support has been able to penetrate and reshape even secular spaces Methods and Contexts in the Study of Muslim Minorities Nadia Jeldtoft, Jørgen Nielsen, 2014-07-16 In the past decade Muslims in Europe have been the subject of heated debates on the place and role of religion in the public space Research into the issues involved has often used visible and formalised expressions of Muslim religiosity as its empirical point of departure This book instead examines the microlevel workings of Muslim minority religiosity to offer a new perspective on these debates Contributors to this volume examine the forms of Muslim religiosity which are not dependent on the official or semi official settings of organised religion These ethnographic studies investigate a range of examples of non organised Islam ranging from salafi jihadism to converts to Islam to everyday spiritualities of Muslim in Europe By exploring these neglected forms of Muslim religiosity this book is able to build up a more nuanced picture of the role of Muslims in Europe It will be of interest to academics researchers and graduate students of Religion Ethnic Studies Migration Studies Sociology and Political Science This book was previously published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Guide to Policies for the Well-being of All in Pluralist Societies Council of Europe,2010-01-01 This guide offers theoretical and practical tools for an innovative approach to a key political issue how along with our immigrant fellow citizens can we build a fair and plural society that ensures the well being of all By moving beyond rigid categories like foreigner immigrant and illegal and ambiguous concepts like identity diversity immigration control and integration this guide suggests that policy makers civil servants and citizens need to question their own vocabulary if they are to grasp the complexity and uniqueness of people's migration paths Perceiving migrants simply from the host country's point of view the security well being and life style of its nationals has limitations We cannot see people of foreign origin only as a threat or a resource to be exploited If we see them as stereotypes we are seeing only a mirror of European fears and contradictory aspirations This guide helps readers decode and address the structural problems of our society looking at the accusations made against migrants And The utilitarian view or the advantages that immigrants bring to host societies In publishing this guide The Council of Europe is seeking to initiate an in depth debate on the migration issue which is so high on the European political agenda Islamic Traditions and Muslim Youth in Norway Christine Jacobsen,2010-12-17 A major question regarding Islam in Europe concerns the religiosity of Muslim youth a category currently epitomizing both the fears and hopes of multicultural Europe How are Islamic traditions engaged and reworked by young people born and educated in European societies and which modes of religiosity will they shape in the future Providing an in depth ethnographic account from Norway this book engages comparative research on Islam and young Muslims from across Europe focusing on Islamic revitalization Muslim identity politics changing configurations of religious authority and the formation of gendered religious subjectivities The author discusses anthropological and other social science theorizing in order to examine religious continuities and discontinuities in a context of international migration globalization and secular modernity Narrating Motherhood(s), Breaking the Silence Silvia Caporale-Bizzini,2006 Feminist theory on motherhood has successfully transformed mothers into subjects of their own discourse recognized the historical heterogeneous and socially constructed origins of their life experience while at the same time widening our understanding of the notion of mothering This collection combines a literary and a wider cultural perspective from which to look at the topic of the representation of other or forgotten motherhoods Mothers who have been forced to live exiled and away from their children women who after trying to conceive get pregnant but discover they cannot bear to become mothers or even literary characters based on an autobiographical experience of a sexually abusive mother The essays critically point out how writing becomes a tool to think and write about the many aspects of motherhood such as an idealized maternal experience versus the real one or the accepted stereotypes of the good mother and the bad mother

The Daily Lives of Muslims Nilüfer Göle,2017-04-15 For many in the West Islam has become a byword for terrorism From 9 11 to the Paris attacks our headlines are dominated by images of violence and extremism Now as the Western world struggles to cope with the refugee crisis there is a growing obsession with the issue of Muslim integration Those Muslims who fail to assimilate are branded the enemy within with their communities said to provide a fertile breeding ground for jihadists Such narratives though fail to take into account the actual lives of most Muslims living in the West fixating instead on a minority of violent extremists In The Daily Lives of Muslims Nil fer G le provides an urgently needed corrective to this distorted image of Islam Engaging with Muslim communities in twenty one cities across Europe where controversies over integration have arisen from the banning of the veil in France to debates surrounding sharia law in the UK the book brings the voices of this neglected majority into the debate In doing so G le uncovers a sincere desire among many Muslims to participate in the public sphere a desire which is too often stifled by Western insecurity and attempts to suppress the outward signs of religious difference

Thinking Differently Alain Touraine,2009-06-22 In his previous books Alain Touraine analysed the great changes that have transformed our personal and collective lives in this new book he shows that we need to transform our ways of thinking about these changes The very idea of society is in crisis globalization and the liberation of desires from taboos have led to the collapse of the old social order In our societies today good and evil can no longer be defined by institutions self awareness is more important than the awareness of rules and subjects have become their own creators Taking as his starting point a critique of what he calls the Dominant Interpretive Discourse which tried throughout the twentieth century to impose the idea of a society without actors that was subject to various kinds of determinism especially economic determinism Touraine argues that the only principle that allows us to evaluate individual behaviour and social situations is the recognition of the political social and cultural rights of all human beings who are viewed as free and equal The individual must be seen as a subject and treated as the cornerstone of a reconstructed sociology Whereas some denounce individualism the author celebrates a subjectivation that involves the defence of the rights of all against all modes of social integration This general line of argument is made concrete through an analysis of the subordination of women the exclusion of minorities and the difficulties young people face at school and at work This major new book represents in many ways the culmination of twenty years of theoretical reflection which began with Critique of Modernity and which have established Touraine as one of the leading figures of contemporary social thought

Bodies, Religion, and Power in Tunisia Raoudha Elguedri Dumbrovska,2024-12-21 This book explores the body as a vector for reading the rapid changes in contemporary Tunisia through questions of sexuality forms of clothing and the dynamics of gender relations Grounded in 15 years of sociological empirical research on the post revolutionary period of Tunisia 2011 2020 this study addresses youth uprisings through their bodies against the dualities of traditional and modern masculinity and femininity and the legitimate and the marginal Bringing together empirical research and a theoretical overview of the evolution of the place of the body in sociology and feminist theory this book deconstructs biological deterministic views of the body and offers instead a perspective of the body as interactive subjective societal and cosmic permeated by different systems policies philosophies and ways of living Chapters analyse Arab and Islamic cultural and cognitive frameworks for the body and apply Foucauldian and feminist concepts of the body and power to provide a comparative sociological study of global politics around the body while centering Tunisian youth movements that demand free use of the body It will be of interest to students and researchers in Women Gender and Sexuality Studies Sociology of the Body Middle Eastern Studies and Feminist Theory Gender in Transnationalism Ruba Salih, 2013-01-11 A fascinating ethnographic journey into migrant women s lives across two countries Gender in Transnationalism highlights women s construction of home between Morocco and Italy as a significant site whereby broader feelings and narratives of displacement and belonging can be grasped Salih investigates what Moroccan women s relations with their adopted country are and how their identities conceptualisations of home and cultural practices are shaped by the transnational dimension of their lives This interdisciplinary book provides a gendered account of transnational migration in the context of changing configurations in both the social sciences and people s lives of notions of locality identity difference and citizenship and by focusing on the lived experience of Moroccan migrant women s transnationalism between Morocco and Italy It will interest students and researchers of transnationalism migration and gender Decolonizing European Sociology Encarnacion Gutierrez Rodriguez, Manuela Boatcă, Sérgio Costa, 2016-05-13 Decolonizing European Sociology builds on the work challenging the androcentric colonial and ethnocentric perspectives eminent in mainstream European sociology by identifying and describing the processes at work in its current critical transformation Divided into sections organized around themes like modernity border epistemology migration and the South this book considers the self definition and basic concepts of social sciences through an assessment of the new theoretical developments such as postcolonial theory and subaltern studies and whether they can be described as the decolonization of the discipline With contributions from a truly international team of leading social scientists this volume constitutes a unique and tightly focused exploration of the challenges presented by the decolonization of the discipline of sociology
