

FROM MY HEAD TO YOURS!

- 1 A woman's hair is an important characteristic and the focus of hours of regular, careful attention. To choose to cut it all off is one thing – to lose it to chemotherapy is another.
- 2 Lise van Breda grew her hair for her wedding day, and shortly afterwards decided to cut it and donate it to the Cancer Association of South Africa (CANSA). 'It was not an act of bravery, but it was symbolic. It meant that one phase of my life was over, and marriage meant entering a new one. I also knew my hair would grow again.' 5
- 3 Lise believes in giving. 'I donate blood every month. I am a stem cell donor and on the list for bone marrow donation for leukaemia. I still need to become an organ donor. As long as I have a healthy lifestyle and can give something to someone who needs it, I will. I have good, strong hair, so why not give that?' 10
- 4 'I found instructions on the CANSA website on how to go about donating,' she says. 'I thought you could not donate your hair if you colour it, but I discovered that CANSA accepts it.' 15
- 5 Lise hopes to encourage other women to donate their hair and help others. It is easy and non-threatening, so more people should be doing it.
- 6 According to statistics, 115 000 South Africans are diagnosed with cancer yearly, with breast cancer being the leading cancer in women. 20
- 7 CANSA runs awareness and fundraising campaigns. During the annual Shavaton people can donate their hair or pay to have it sprayed. The Shavatons take place at shopping centres around the country. 'People phone us to say they are growing their hair for us,' says Lucy, head of marketing and communication at CANSA. 25
- 8 We just cut the ponytail then they go to a hairdresser for a new hairstyle. They donate their hair because they want to show support and unity with cancer patients and survivors. 'It is a powerful, fascinating gift.'
- 9 Those who cut their hair at a salon, must tie it in a ponytail that is 25 cm or longer because length is lost when making a wig. It must be sealed in a zip-lock bag and taken to a CANSA Care Centre. The hair is sent off to the wigmakers in batches of 300 g. It takes about ten ponytails to make a complete wig. 30

The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy, Robert Cameron, Ursula Hoadley, Vinothan Naidoo, 2018-08-24 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence. It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations. All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse. A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult. Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation. The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education. Using the vivid example of South Africa, a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy, it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes. By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals, it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re-orient the system towards learning. Globalisation, Ideology and Education Reforms Joseph Zajda, 2020-06-17 This book analyses the nexus between ideology, the state and education reforms worldwide. The research evinces the neo-liberal ideological imperatives of current education and policy reforms and illustrates the way these shifts in the relationship between the state and education policy are affecting current trends in education reforms and schooling around the globe. With this as its focus, the chapters represent hand-picked scholarly research on major discourses in the field of global education reforms. Offering a compendium of the very latest thought on the subject, this book is like the others in the series: a state-of-the-art sourcebook for researchers, practitioners and policymakers alike. Not only do the chapters offer a timely analysis of current issues shaping education policy research, the work also contains ideas about future directions that education and policy reforms could take. By doing so, it provides a comprehensive view of the diverse and intersecting discourses on globalisation and policy-driven reforms in education. The book draws on recent studies in the areas of globalisation, education reforms and the role of the state. Respective chapters critically assess the dominant discourses and debates on education and policy reforms. Using diverse comparative education paradigms ranging from critical theory to historical comparative research, they focus on globalisation, ideology and democracy and examine both the reasons for and outcomes of education reforms and policy change. Smart and Resilient Infrastructure For Emerging Economies: Perspectives on Building Better Innocent Musonda, Erastus Mwanaumo, Adetayo Onososen, Thembanani Moyo, 2023-11-23 Smart and Resilient Infrastructure For Emerging Economies: Perspectives on Building Better is about pressing and multidimensional challenges faced in constructing resilient, sustainable and smart infrastructure in developing countries. The 32 case studies, literature reviews, comparative analyses and systematic reviews cover a wide range of topics including sustainable and resilient infrastructure development smart cities digital innovation in construction infrastructure investment construction ergonomics socio environmental sustainability gender equity and climate change responses The contributions present innovative solutions impactful insights and substantive contributions to the discourse on sustainable infrastructure development and illuminate the interplay between infrastructure development social justice environmental sustainability and technological advancement Smart and Resilient Infrastructure For Emerging Economies Perspectives on Building Better is essential reading for academics researchers practitioners policymakers and students involved in the built environment infrastructure delivery investment in infrastructure civil engineering architecture urban planning environmental science and other related disciplines

Languages, Identities and Intercultural Communication in South Africa and Beyond

Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Felix Maringe, Martin Prew, 2015-05-05

Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the books chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years

Radical Solutions for Education in Africa Daniel Burgos, Jako

Olivier,2021-08-02 This book explores the state of open education in terms of self directed learning on the African continent Through a combination of conceptual systematic literature review and empirical chapters readers will get a research based impression of these aspects in this area Apart from presenting existing wider trends regarding open education this book also reports on effective open practices in support of self directed learning Whose visions for what learning? Bray, Mark,UNESCO,2025-07-11 A Rumour of Spring Max du Preez,2013-11-27 Democracy in South Africa turns twenty on 27 April 2014 In A Rumour of Spring Max du Preez investigates and analyses the progress and lack of progress the country has made during these twenty years A Rumour of Spring looks at the legacies of Nelson Mandela and Thabo Mbeki in an attempt to understand how we got here and examines Jacob Zuma s presidency to better understand where we are In the context of blatant corruption populism and tragedies such as the Marikana massacre the book considers the current state of the ruling party and the opposition and dissects the big issues currently afflicting our society including the state of education land reform crime and policing the judiciary nationality and race And then with images of the Arab Spring fresh in our collective memory it dares to look to the future and what it may hold An honest and balanced account A Rumour of Spring tackles the questions asked by ordinary South Africans every day How are we really doing What is really going on in our country How should we understand what is happening here And will it get any better Hunger and Poverty in South Africa Jacqueline Hanoman,2017-09-01 Hunger and Poverty in South Africa The Hidden Faces of Food Insecurity explores food insecurity as an issue of socioeconomic political cultural and environmental inequity and inequality Based on extensive original research in Free State Province South Africa the book explores how people living in poverty make meaning of their food circumstances within the socio cultural political and economic contexts of post apartheid South Africa how they view the government s food security policies and programs and their perceived agency to affect change The personal narratives contained in the book show that food insecurity is shaped by many issues among which are structural poverty racism attempts or non attempts at reconciliation during and after apartheid public health issues such as HIV AIDS and environmental circumstances At a time when most discourse around food insecurity focuses on how to provide more food to people facing hunger this book s multidimensional approach is a valuable contribution to the contemporary dialogue on poverty food security insecurity sustainability and democratic agency both within South Africa and around the world This book will be of interest to researchers in the areas of food security multidimensional poverty democratic agency and sustainable development both in South Africa and internationally New Literacies and Teacher Learning Michele Knobel,Judy Kalman,2016-03-30 New Literacies and Teacher Learning examines the complexities of teacher professional development today in relation to new literacies and digital technologies set within the wider context of strong demands for teachers to be innovative and to improve students learning outcomes Contributors hail from Argentina Australia Canada Finland Mexico Norway and the U S and work in a broad range of situations grade levels activities scales and even national contexts Projects include early year

education through to adult literacy education and university contexts describing a range of approaches to taking up new literacies and digital technologies within diverse learning practices While the authors present detailed descriptions of using various digital resources like movie editing software wikis video conferencing Twitter and YouTube they all agree that digital stuff while important is not the central concern Instead what they foreground in their discussions are theory informed pedagogical orientations collaborative learning theories the complexities of teachers workplaces and young people s interests Thus a key premise in this collection is that teaching and learning are about deep engagement representing meanings in a range of ways These include acknowledging relationships and knowledge thinking critically about events phenomena and processes and participating in valued social and cultural activities The book shows how this kind of learning doesn t simply occur in a one off session but takes time commitment and multiple opportunities to interact with others to explore play make mistakes and get it right
