

Government: The Final Study Guide

Understand how our country came to be, how the system was designed to work, how things have changed over time. After studying each chapter, consider the changes according to how important you think they are. Consider some issues that are important to you. Is there anything that is not included, perhaps it is not what you think is important, but I might agree that it is not really that important. The purpose of this document is to help you understand the system and how it works. I want to help you understand the system and how it works. I want to help you understand the system and how it works. I want to help you understand the system and how it works.
