Aliens George Edgar Slusser, 1987 How and when does there come to be an anthropology of the alien? This set of essays, written for the eighth J. Lloyd Eaton Conference on Fantasy and Science Fiction, is concerned with the significance of that question. Anthropology is the science that must designate the alien if it is to redefine a place for itself in the universe, according to the Introduction. The idea of the alien is not new. In the Renaissance Montaigne's purpose in describing an alien encounter was excoriation: man-kind was the savage because the artificial devices of nature controlled him. Shakespeare's version of the alien encounter was incorporation: his character of Caliban is brought to the artificial political world of man and incorporated into the body politic. The essays in this volume show, in their general orientation, that the tribe of Shakespeare still in literary studies at least outnumbers that of Montaigne. These essays show the interrelation of the excorporating possibilities to the internal soundings of the alien encounter within the human mind and form. This book is divided into three parts. Searchings: The Quest for the Alien includes The Aliens in Our Mind by Larry Niven, Effing the Ineffable by Gregory Benford, Border Patrols by Michael Beehler, Alien Aliens by Pascal Ducommun, and Metamorphoses of the Dragon by George E. Slusser. Sightings: The Aliens among Us includes Discriminating among Friends by John Huntington, Sex Superman Sociobiology by Joseph D. Miller, Cowboys and Telepaths by Eric S. Rabkin, Robots by Noel Perrin, Aliens in the Supermarket by George R. Guffey, and Aliens R U S by Zoe Sofia. Soundings
