

playing your first chord

Using the chart as a reference, here's how to play your first chord — C:

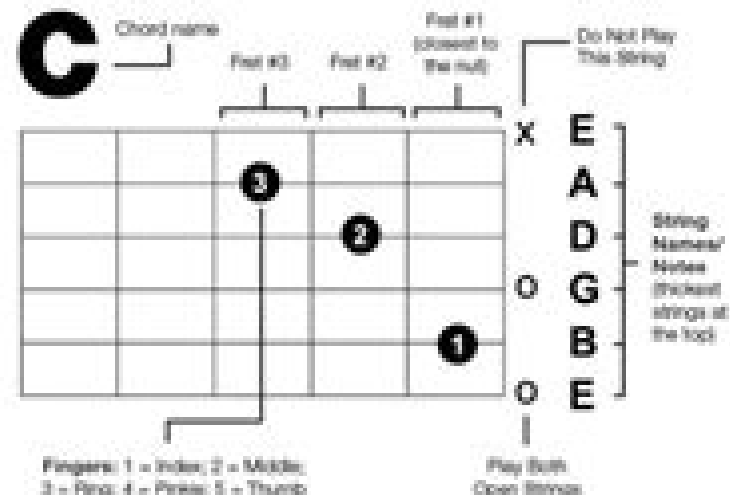

1. Your index finger (finger #1) goes on the B string and the first fret (fret closest to the nut).
2. Your middle finger (finger #2) goes on the D string and the second fret.
3. Your ring finger (finger #3) goes on the A string and the third fret.
4. The open string notes of the G string and the bottom E string (the string closest your feet) are part of the chord and SHOULD be strummed along with the notes produced by your fingertips.
5. The top string (E), the string closest to your head, is not included in the chord and SHOULD NOT be strummed.

Once you have all your fingers set into place, play a downstroke.
