

Introduction

- Write a clear introduction that states what you are evaluating, the criteria or standards, and your thesis statement.
- Introduce the subject by writing about it to provide your readers with a clear picture of the subject in the context that you focus on writing.
- Establish the criteria or standards upon which you will be proving your thesis.
- Write a thesis statement that asserts your judgment. A good thesis statement determines the focus of your entire essay and aids in understanding the gist of your essay. In addition, the thesis presents a point of view you are taking.
- Should comprise 10% of the word count

Body Paragraph 1

- Write the topic sentence that outlines the first criterion along with the judgment of the criterion. Use transition words to move from the thesis to the first reason
- Provide relevant support to your first reason using examples, quotes, expert findings, statistics, comparisons, etc.
- Fortify your main arguments by addressing the objections or opposing viewpoints.

Body Paragraph 2

- Write the topic sentence that outlines the second criterion along with the judgment of the criterion. Use transition words to move from the thesis to the first reason
- Provide relevant support to your second reason using examples, quotes, expert findings, statistics, comparisons, etc.
- Fortify your main arguments by addressing the objections or opposing viewpoints.

Body Paragraph 3

- Write the topic sentence that outlines the third criterion along with the judgment of the criterion. Use transition words to move from the thesis to the first reason
- Provide relevant support to your third reason using examples, quotes, expert findings, statistics, comparisons, etc.
- Fortify your main arguments by addressing the objections or opposing viewpoints.

Conclusion

- Restate the thesis statement in a redefined manner. It has not to be the same as the one in the introduction.
- Ensure that you show your final position
- Clarify how your final position is relevant given the topic or essay question
- Explain who should be concerned with the findings in your essay
- Notify your readers about the importance of the topic.
- Make it brief and 10% of the word count
