Lambert, F.-W. Tang, W. J. Rogers, 2001 The use of polymers in medical devices is growing at a steady rate These materials are generally relatively cheap and versatile qualities required in many bulk applications In more specialised medical devices polymeric components have been developed to meet challenging property and performance requirements This review describes the process of developing polymeric products for medical applications from design requirements through to specific examples of medical devices and packaging An additional indexed section containing several hundred abstracts from the Rapra Polymer Library database gives useful references for further reading Applications of Fluorescence in Surgery and Interventional Diagnostics Mark Preul, Evgenii Belykh, David Leslie Carr-Locke, Quyen Nguyen, 2021-06-04 The Journal of the Acoustical Society of America Acoustical Society of America, 2006 Endoscopy, 1993 User Experience Design in the Era of Automated Driving Andreas Riener, Myounghoon Jeon, Ignacio Alvarez, 2022-01-01 This book is dedicated to user experience design for automated driving to address humane aspects of automated driving e.g workload safety trust ethics and acceptance Automated driving has experienced a major development boost in recent years However most of the research and implementation has been technology driven rather than human centered The levels of automated driving have been poorly defined and inconsistently used A variety of application scenarios and restrictions has been ambiguous Also it deals with human factors design practices and methods as well as applications such as multimodal infotainment virtual reality augmented reality and interactions in and outside users This book aims at 1 providing engineers designers and practitioners with a broad overview of the state of the art user experience research in automated driving to speed up the implementation of automated vehicles and 2 helping researchers and students benefit from various perspectives and approaches to generate new research ideas and conduct more integrated research
