study not only reveals that Latinos strategies for access to business ownership and for business development are cut across class ethnic and gender lines but also that immigrants options practices and social spaces remain largely shaped by patriarchal gender relations within the immigrant family community and economy This book is a necessary addition to the literature on immigration class gender relations and the intersectionality of these issues

Cupcakes, Pinterest, and Ladyporn Elana Levine, 2015-09-30 Media expansion into the digital realm and the continuing segregation of users into niches has led to a proliferation of cultural products targeted to and consumed by women Though often dismissed as frivolous or excessively emotional feminized culture in reality offers compelling insights into the American experience of the early twenty first century Elana Levine brings together writings from feminist critics that chart the current terrain of feminized pop cultural production Analyzing everything from Fifty Shades of Grey to Pinterest to pregnancy apps contributors examine the economic technological representational and experiential dimensions of products and phenomena that speak to and about the feminine As these essays show the imperative of productivity currently permeating feminized pop culture has created a generation of texts that speak as much to women s roles as public and private workers as to an impulse for fantasy or escape Incisive and compelling Cupcakes Pinterest and Ladyporn sheds new light on contemporary women s engagement with an array of media forms in the context of postfeminist culture and neoliberalism

The Body Impolitic Michael Herzfeld, 2004 The Body Impolitic is a critical study of tradition not merely as an ornament of local and national heritage but also as a millstone around the necks of those who are condemned to produce it Michael Herzfeld takes us inside a rich variety of small town Cretan artisans workshops to show how apprentices are systematically thwarted into learning by stealth and guile This harsh training reinforces a stereotype of artisans as rude and uncultured Moreover the same stereotypes that marginalize artisans locally also operate to marginalize Cretans within the Greek nation and Greece itself within the international community What Herzfeld identifies as the global hierarchy of value thus frames the nation s ancient monuments and traditional handicrafts as evidence of incurable backwardness Herzfeld s sensitive observations offer an intimately grounded way of understanding the effects of globalization and of one of its most visible offshoots the heritage industry on the lives of ordinary people in many parts of the world today

Women, Migration and Citizenship Alexandra Dobrowolsky, 2016-02-17 Given the recent and rapid changes to migration patterns and citizenship processes this volume provides a timely compelling empirical and theoretical study of the gendered implications of such developments More specifically it draws out the multiple connections between migration and citizenship concerns and practices for women The collection features original research that examines women s diverse im migrant and refugee experiences and exposes how gender ideologies and practices organize migrant citizenship in its various dimensions at the local national and transnational levels The volume contributes to theoretical debates on gender migration and citizenship and provides new insights into their interrelation It includes rich case studies that range from the Philippines and Somalia to the Caribbean and from Australasia to Canada and Britain Designed to have a multidisciplinary appeal it is suitable for courses on migration diversity gender race ethnicity law and public policy comparative politics and international relations Buying Beauty WEN
