Signalman 1 & C NAVEDTRA 14243* , Your choice to become a Signalman is a very good one The Signalman rating is one of the oldest in the Navy and visual communication the first form of nautical communications continues undiminished in importance today You will find your job interesting rewarding and full of the satisfaction that comes of service to the Navy and the United States At the level of operating forces communications as you will learn is truly the voice of command in a visible way The communication organization aboard ship is under the control of the commanding officer In the transmission and reception of signals and messages communicators actively participate in the exercise of command The fleet needs capable personnel in all ratings because an effective naval force is only as good as the people who man the ships Even with the most modern equipment the force is seriously handicapped without competent personnel to operate and maintain that equipment Good people are plentiful but their capability depends on their training This manual contains the basic knowledge you need for advancement in the Signalman rating Skills in personnel advancement requirements PARS including a performance test also are required but these can only be developed through practice and experience Personnel Qualification Standard PQS is a qualification for officers and enlisted personnel to perform certain duties The Signalman PQS booklet
