- ✓ During HCL EC2™ installation (if it has been purchased as a stand alone package), care should be taken while changing the location of the Temporary Files to a new location under the optimize your system performance page, after change, EC2 won't monitor the new location if the location is in a drive which is not protected by EC2
- ✓ In case HCL EC2™ has been purchased as a stand alone software package, then before installation, it is necessary to "turn off" or "disable" any existing Recovery Tool (including MS Windows Recovery Tool) or any encryption tool.
