To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to recommend Garrett Larson as a candidate for scholarship consideration. I have interacted with Garrett in a number of capacities during my tenure as Head Football Coach/Educator at Fruitland High School.

Garrett has an outstanding rapport with his peers and is very well liked by staff as well. I have always found Garrett to be reliable, conscientious, personable, intelligent, and to have the highest of moral standards.

Garrett has been involved in a number of activities as a student /athlete here at Fruitland High School. He has participated and excelled in community service as well as playing Football (playing in 3 State Championship games) and Wrestling. In each case, the feedback I received has always been extremely positive whether it is from a fellow coach, parent, teacher or peer.

Garrett has the kind of work ethic rarely found in high school athletes today. Garrett's day typically starts with a 7am Strength & Conditioning class, followed by 7 academic classes. What has impressed me the most is Garrett coming in 7th hour, prior to practice, and doing additional strength and footwork drills on his own. Garrett would then attend a 2 hour practice and return home to do homework and study. Garrett has learned to budget his time, an outstanding quality for a young man.

Garrett is very conscientious and motivated in the classroom as well. His 3.1 GPA is the result of commitment and diligence in his academic endeavors.

He is very well respected by the faculty and students alike. He is friendly and open and has been an integral part of our football program during my tenure at Fruitland High School. Garrett was recently rewarded by being named to the first team Offense on the 2012 & 2013 Idaho All-State football team.

It is without reservation that I recommend Garrett Larson for scholarship consideration. Please feel free to contact me at (208) 989-9246 at my home or (208) 452-4411 ext. 109 at Fruitland High School with any further questions.

Sincerely,

Head Football Coach Letter Of Recommendation:

Lost Champions Gretchen Atwood, 2016-09-06 The story of the integration of professional football the year before Jackie Robinson did the same for baseball has been overlooked for too long Many know the story of Jackie Robinson integrating major league baseball in 1947 But few know that the NFL integrated a year earlier when Kenny Washington stepped on the field for the Los Angeles Rams He wasn't the only one Four men broke pro football's color line in 1946 Kenny Washington and Woody Strode with the Los Angeles Rams and Bill Willis and Marion Motley with the Cleveland Browns Lost Champions traces this history from the early 1930s when NFL owners first instituted a ban on black players through pro football's reintegration to the 1950 NFL Championship Game which pitted the Rams and Browns against each other in a showdown of the most prolific and advanced offenses pro football had ever seen But the battle wasn't just waged on the gridiron Lost Champions shows how efforts to integrate sports sits within the often ignored history of the civil rights movement in the 1940s The four players faced animosity and death threats for their role in integration while they and all black Americans were threatened in 1946 by a spike in lynchings threat of legal expulsion from their own homes and segregation all the way down to the simple act of going to an amusement park for a bit of relaxation Finally Lost Champions explains why these men and their stories have for so long languished in the shadow of Jackie Robinson and why they too deserve widespread acclaim for integrating what is arguably the most popular sport in America

Smith,2016-04-15 The Jerry Sandusky child molestation case stunned the nation As subsequent revelations uncovered an athletic program operating free of oversight university officials faced criminal charges while unprecedented NCAA sanctions hammered Penn State football and blackened the reputation of coach Joe Paterno In Wounded Lions acclaimed sport historian and longtime Penn State professor Ronald A Smith heavily draws from university archives to answer the How and Why at the heart of the scandal The Sandusky case was far from the first example of illegal behavior related to the football program or the university's attempts to suppress news of it. As Smith shows, decades of infighting among administrators, alumni, trustees, faculty, and coaches established policies intended to protect the university and the football team, considered synonymous with its name at all costs. If the habits predated Paterno, they also became sanctified during his tenure. Smith names names to show how abuses of power warped the Penn State way, even with hires like women's basketball coach Rene Portland, who allegedly practiced sexual bias against players for decades. Smith also details a system that concealed Sandusky's horrific acts just as deftly as it whitewashed years of rules violations, coaching malfeasance, and player crime while Paterno set records and raised hundreds of millions of dollars for the university. A myth-shattering account of misplaced priorities, Wounded Lions charts the intertwined history of an elite university, its storied sports program, and the worst scandal in collegiate athletic history. He graduated from West Point, fought in the Korean War, earned a doctorate in history from Georgetown University, and served in government during the Vietnam War. He also co-founded one of the world's preeminent think tanks, the Center for Strategic and International Studies. Along the way, he became a personal adviser to multiple presidents, earning a reputation as one of Washington, D.C.'s truly wise men. All of which makes the warnings contained in these memoirs so topical. Writing near the end of his life, Abshire concludes that our
