The aim of this book is to share a relatively loose collection of studies using digital storytelling as a pedagogical tool in Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT The book takes an informed social justice approach to teaching and learning at the heart of which is the exploration of DST as a practice of voice and agency Voice and agency are important in excavating and recovering subjugated identities and moving the concerns of those occupying subaltern spaces to the mainstream of teaching and learning Yet this discursive shift is not without inherent challenges Multi modal technologies are reflective of wider inequities in the so called technological divide Whilst this is a book about higher education there are important lessons for schooling On the one hand the book is a powerful demonstration of the potential of DST for enhancing learning in schools particularly in schools serving the poor and marginalised On the other hand improving teaching and learning in higher education through the creative use of technology is essential to overcome the learning challenges of those entering tertiary level institutions      Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15

This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen s capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capability scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capability scholars practitioners and policy makers      Skills Development in Very Small and Micro Enterprises Simon A. From Our Side Nico Koopman, S. Strijbos, 2008 From Our Side is a collaborative effort of younger scholars in southern Africa and the Netherlands who are interested in the relationship between development and ethics from a Christian point of view The 17 chapters that make up the book have been produced through a unique set of partnerships in which the authors have intentionally worked with practitioners who are working in the development arena The essays were also shared in a number of settings with the authors so that they have also benefited from this creative partnership process and these partnerships have embraced people in both the South and the North signalling a desire for a global dialogue led by Africa on matters which have a strong impact upon the continent      Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri

Sauerman,2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country s apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country s people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations Africa Insight ,2002 South Africa Yearbook ,2009 Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa.
