and sharing that the Lord quietly said to her that the writings were a book She said in her conversation with the Lord A what In time He showed her how many writings were saved in a file on her computer She still replied Me write a book And again in time He said It is Finished She said So much for that conversation Once Pastor Juanita accepted the purpose for the encouraging writings she obediently began to read over them and they became a manuscript She reported that despite the religious content of using a scripture to guide the thoughts and ending each writing with a prayer she somehow stubbornly never meant the book to be a religious document and even while re addressing the complication of these texts She wanted this work to not just be for Christians but for everyone no matter their persuasions or views She had an overall commitment to touching others with hope peace and the knowledge that they are not alone and that we all share the commonality of daily life challenges questions and dilemmas What is beautiful is that over the seasons these email attachments were being written she was ordained as an Elder Pastored a Church and was the CEO of a non profit agency that provided Counseling services to those in need and without money Go figure While there is no overlooking who her spiritual guide is she believes in her heart that He Loves us all because He is Love I John 4 16 says it well And we have known and believed the love that God has for us God is love and he who abides in love abides in God and God in him New King James Version The Memoir Man Frances Webb,2019-12-19 The small dramas that happen in public places are like mini stories that can entertain make us think or touch a certain emotion They are played out without a producer or editor but maybe with a writer taking notes These twenty or so stories are perhaps those notes The Memoir Man and Others in Public Places is a collection of both short stories and poems that range from a camouflaged homeless person pushing a grocery cart carrying a typewriter to a man walking on Fifth Avenue with a television on his head The main characters are either slightly mentally or emotionally challenged and happen to be out in public Bits and pieces of lives such as these are played out with an involved narrator or without A man sits at a table in a library peeling an egg while being watched by a woman quietly and obsessively reviewing highlights of her ancestor s life A man on a train is peeling an egg and wondering what to do with the tiny pieces of shells lodged in the creases of his hands A woman watches and judges a woman filling her pockets with napkins at a Barnes and Noble caf In a museum lobby a woman notices a couple trying to check their baby along with their coats Both long and short stories capture obsession loneliness nosiness and brief moments of guilt or compassion He s back He looks at the kid holding his pen He looks pained He walks to the window He can t sit down He rubs his eyes and pushes his gray hair to a stick out straight up position Then smooths it down Rubs his head again I think Maybe he has a publisher Maybe he is a retired professor on a mission for the Center for Advanced Learning or the Fellowship of Spanish Believers or the Salvation Army Karl Marx wrote Das Kapital in the British Museum The man could be another Karl Marx and I am watching him change the course of history It s a shame they don t supply him with an office I think too If that kid speaks to him he will cry Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
