House Keys Not Handcuffs:

House Keys Not Handcuffs Paul Boden, 2015 House Keys Not Handcuffs is a reflection on over 30 years of homeless organizing in San Francisco. It is an attempt to sort out what went well and what did not as a community begins to organize in order to hold public and private institutions accountable. Its purpose is not only to distill the lessons we have learned but to encourage others to document and reflect on their own experiences in the hope that we can collectively contribute to a stronger more broadly based movement. The book draws from the insights of Paul Boden whose own experiences on the street as an activist and as a co-founder of the Coalition on Homelessness and later the Western Regional Advocacy Project WRAP give him a unique and wide perspective. It is a voice for people who have no power or privilege except for their capacity to organize and demand social justice. Additional essays by friends and longtime allies Art Hazelwood and Bob Prentice round out the book. It also includes 67 images created by printmakers, painters, muralists, cartoonists, and photographers giving a history of the art made in the struggle. Homelessness is a visible manifestation of a society that is lacking in justice. We offer House Keys Not Handcuffs in the hope that it will help reinvigorate a social justice movement in this country that respects all of us as human beings and ensures that all people have a right to exist and a place to live as basic human rights.

Experiencing Cities Mark Hutter, 2015-12-22 This extraordinary text for undergraduate urban students is a reflection of Mark Hutter's academic interests in urban sociology and his life-long passion for experiencing city life. His deep academic roots in the Chicago School of Sociology help inform and appreciate the variety of urban structures and processes and their effect on the everyday lives of people living in cities. This text however extends the Chicago School perspective by combining its traditions with a social psychological perspective derived from symbolic interaction and also with a macro level examination of social organization, social change, stratification, and power in the urban context informed by political economy. This entirely new 3rd Edition has a global outlook on city life and a visual presentation unmatched among books in this genre.

Spent behind the Wheel Julietta Hua, Kasturi Ray, 2021-12-21 Exploring professional passenger driving and the gig economy through feminist theories of labor. Are taxi drivers in today's era of the ride-hail app performing care work akin to domestic and household labor? So argue the authors of Spent behind the Wheel. Bringing together sociological and legal perspectives with feminist theoretical insights, Julietta Hua and Kasturi Ray examine the case study of contemporary professional passenger driving in the United States. On the one hand, they show the rise of the gig economy has brought new attention to the industry of professional passenger driving. On the other hand, the vulnerabilities that professional drivers experience remain hidden. Drawing on interviews with drivers, labor organizers, and members of licensing commissions, as well as case law and other published resources, Hua and Ray argue that working for ride-hail companies like Uber and Lyft shares similarities with driving for taxi companies in the impact on driver lives. Lyft and Uber sell the idea of industry disruption but in fact they entrench long-standing modes of extracting the reproductive labor of their drivers for the benefit of consumer lives Reproductive labor conventionally understood as feminized labor is extracted but masked behind the masculinized racialized bodies of drivers Professional driving is thus best understood alongside domestic and other gendered service work as reproductive labors devalued and often demonetized to benefit the national economy Spent behind the Wheel is a must for readers interested in critical studies of technological change and the gig economy showing how drivers capacities are drained for the benefit of riders corporations and the maintenance of the racial state Sons, Daughters, and Sidewalk Psychotics Neil Gong, 2024-03-29 Intro Contents List of Abbreviations Preface Thirty Years Late Introduction Part I Community Care For Different Communities 1 Dilemmas of the Street and of the Home 2 Sorting Out the Down and Out 3 Remaking Relatives Remaking Relations Part II Unequal Treatments Unequal Recoveries 4 Social Prognosis 5 A Life off the Institutional Circuit 6 A Viable Identity Part III The Paradox Of Client Choice 7 Of Love and Liability 8 Tolerant Containment 9 Concerted Constraint Conclusion Acknowledgments Research Appendix Notes References Index

Precarious Enterprise on the Margins Jessica Gerrard,2017-07-21 This book explores the contemporary conditions of marginal work within the context of persistent unemployment poverty and homelessness in wealthy nations Drawing from research concerning three cities Melbourne San Francisco and London Jessica Gerrard offers a rich account of one of the most precarious informal forms of work selling homeless street press The Big Issue and Street Sheet Combining analyses of sellers everyday work experiences with theorizations of marginality working and learning Gerrard provides much needed insight into contemporary forms of entrepreneurial and precarious work This book demonstrates that those who are unemployed and seemingly unproductive are in fact highly productive They value desire and seek practical work experience whilst also struggling to fulfill the basic needs that many of us take for granted Green City Rising Erin

Goodling,2024-05-15 Green City Rising is an ethnographic account of collective organizing for environmental justice in an era of growing concern about environmental and climate challenges The conventional sustainability paradigm promises improved environmental conditions for all such as fresh air and clean water walkable and bikeable neighborhoods green space access and protection from climate crises Yet without particular interventions the pursuit of such environmental amenities often contributes to displacement and further harm for communities that have historically borne the brunt of land theft racial capitalism and toxic industries Drawing on the work of an alliance of grassroots organizations called the Portland Harbor Community Coalition PHCC Erin Goodling shows how communities have come together across lines of race and class to work for a more just green future in Portland Oregon Green City Rising reveals that the violence of settler colonialism and white supremacy are far from endpoints a collective vision for a better future is emerging and ordinary people are building the understanding skills and relationships necessary to usher it in Conservatorship Alex V. 2024 Eliot Freidson Outstanding Publication Award Medical Sociology Section American Sociological Association Honorable Mention 2025 Best Book Award Sociology of Mental Health Section American Sociological Association Is involuntary psychiatric treatment the solution to the intertwined crises of untreated mental illness homelessness and addiction In recent years politicians and advocates have sought to expand the use of conservatorships a legal tool used to force someone deemed gravely disabled or unable to meet their needs for food clothing or shelter as a result of mental illness to take medication and be placed in a locked facility At the same time civil liberties and disability rights groups have seized on cases like that of Britney Spears to argue that conservatorships are inherently abusive Conservatorship is an incisive and compelling portrait of the functioning and failings of California s conservatorship system Drawing on hundreds of interviews with professionals policy makers families and conservatees Alex V Barnard takes readers to the streets where police encounter homeless people in crisis the locked wards where people receiving treatment are confined and the courtrooms where judges decide on conservatorship petitions As he shows California s state government has abdicated authority over this system leaving the question of who receives compassionate care and who faces coercion dependent on the financial incentives of for profit facilities the constraints of underresourced clinicians and the desperate struggles of families to obtain treatment for their loved ones This book offers a timely warning reforms to expand conservatorship will lead to more coercion but little transformative care until government assumes accountability for ensuring the health and dignity of its most vulnerable citizens Research Handbook on Homelessness Guy Johnson,Dennis Culhane,Suzanne Fitzpatrick,Stephen
