

HOW TO START A GREAT ESSAY

HOW TO START AN ESSAY

Of course, the most important thing when beginning your essay is to select a good topic. You will likely have been given an essay prompt or an essay question but then choosing the topic and theme is completely up to your imagination. It is important to choose something that you have a passion about and can easily write about. Once you have done this and made the necessary preparations, you can begin writing. But where do we start?

PREPARATION

No essay can be started without good planning and therefore it is important that once you have chosen your topic, you spend a good deal of time outlining your ideas and coming up with a detailed plan of what you are going to write. You should also perform any research at
