

How does Fitzgerald tell the story in chapter 4

Chapter 4 starts with an exposition which provides background information on Gatsby's guests, the retrospective point of view adds an element of reminiscence as highlighted by the quote "From east egg, then came the Chester Beckers and the leeches" and one may infer the fact that Nick's opinion on Gatsby is starting to change, with the subtle tones of admiration shown in the quotes such as "To my astonishment the things had an authentic look" .

Furthermore Jordan's narration of the subsequent paragraphs compound the evidence of Gatsby's previous encounters with Daisy, Nick trusts Jordan's narrative, despite her dishonest nature (Especially in her golfing career), owing to his physical attraction to her, which is shown in chapter 3 by the quote "She held my hand impersonally"

In reference to the structure of this chapter, cinematic techniques and telescoping are used to guide us through the past, shown by the quote "Benny McLenahan always arrived with four girls" this not only describes his tenacious efforts in recording the comings and goings of Gatsby's numerous guests but also shows contrast to the following paragraphs and segues nicely into the present tense and the symbolically significant car journey.

The symbolism of Gatsby's car is as follows; seeing as Gatsby's car is most certainly a status symbol, it further shows Gatsby's efforts at attracting Daisy, this is shown by the quote "Everybody had seen it" also the colours of the car imply grandeur as green is the colour of American currency, and is a colour shared with the car's seats, shown when Nick says "Green leather....."

With the end of the car journey comes the introduction of Gatsby's network of crooks, which provides a contrast to the glittering façade of his decadent parties, another element of contrast is the fact that New York is portrayed as a place of wild promise, where characters such as Gatsby can exist, shown when Nick says "Even Gatsby could happen, without any particular wonder", this shows contrast with the party in the previous chapter.

The fact that the cellar is dark shown by the quote "I discovered his tiny eyes through the darkness" shows that the cellar is a metaphor for the underworld where the characters almost seem part of the shadows, as well as this, another point may be drawn from this quote, in the way that things with small eyes are usually accustomed to seeing through dark places, in my mind this is a way in which Fitzgerald is trying to imply that Meyer Wolfshiem is used to looking through the darkness, and in reference to the aforementioned metaphor involved in such shady dealings. Shortly after this comes the sudden realisation that Gatsby
