International Students' Multilingual Literacy Practices Peter I. De Costa, Wendy Li, Jongbong Lee, 2022-08-04 This book presents the results of research that focused on international students receiving writing instruction on a US university campus It explores how the students developed their foreign student identities and their own ways of grappling with the unique issues they encountered as they worked to improve their academic literacy skills The book extends the theoretical horizons of language socialization research by integrating insights from other disciplinary frameworks such as a translingual approach multilingual literacies and writing center theory to explore international students university experiences By adopting these varied lenses the book provides readers with a more holistic integrative and ecological understanding of students language and literacy development The authors also investigate how a translingual pedagogy informs language instructors and literacy instructors in facilitating multilingual students academic literacy development across a variety of codes registers genres modes and media JSL Vol 27-N5 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,2018-01-26 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement A Parents' Guide to Grading and Reporting Matt Townsley,Chad Lang,2023-09-15 Whether resulting from the educational fallout of the COVID 19 global pandemic or merely challenging the status quo more schools are transitioning their grading practices away from traditional points and percentages and toward 21st century grading practices such as standards based and proficiency based grading A Parents Guide to Grading and Reporting Being Clear about What Matters assists parents and guardians in understanding what is involved in 21st century grading and how to become better partners with educators in efforts to understand students strengths and areas for improvement New Jersey Register ,2016
