

- (a) The only way we can solve the problem of poverty is by creation of new wealth legally and ethically, not by redistributing existing wealth.
- (b) There are only a few people who can lead the task of creation of wealth, just as there are only a few good surgeons, professors and lawyers.
- (c) These people are human beings and they need incentives to create wealth.
- (d) The job of the government is not to create wealth but to create an environment where these leaders are enthused to create more and more wealth.

There are two kinds of wealth creators—those that add to the existing wealth passed on to them by the previous generation of wealth creators and those that create wealth from scratch.

Q. 3. (A) Read the following extract and answer the questions given below :

Henry David Thoreau raised a provocative question : “What is the use of a house if you haven’t got a tolerable planet to put it on?” It’s hard to answer. What is the use of science and art and dance and music if our way of life is making the earth uninhabitable?

I love music and fine arts; I have always been a fan of classical dance and theater. I have deep respect for the beneficial accomplishments of science. But all of these take second place in my heart behind the art of living in harmony with the earth, with others, and with myself – not because I don’t love the arts and sciences, but because, as Thoreau would say, if you don’t have a good planet to put it on, what’s the use of having the best western
