Building Shared Responsibility for Student Learning Anne Conzemius, Jan O'Neill, 2001

Who is responsible for student learning? Walk into an effective school and ask this question of anyone: a teacher, a student, the principal, a parent, volunteer, a secretary, and you'll get the same answer: I am. Shared responsibility is something school communities build from within. It's what happens when all school people accept that what they do makes a difference in how all students learn when they have the knowledge they need to make informed decisions about the best way to promote learning and when they have the skills and opportunities to translate their ideas into effective action. Anne Conzemius and Jan O'Neill present a practical framework for building shared responsibility within schools and school systems. They identify three critical components:

- Focus: The common vision, mission, values, and expectations that provide clarity and lead to new levels of performance.
- Reflection: The commitment to test assumptions, learn from data, and adjust practices accordingly.
- Collaboration: The process of developing relationships where all work toward the same objectives and rely on each other to achieve their goals Building shared responsibility for student learning is an ongoing activity a journey and not a destination This research based resource provides a map in the form of effective structures systems processes and policies It explains how to set powerful goals and shares inspiring stories of educators who have embarked on this journey toward higher professional competency increased staff satisfaction rising test scores and improved student results English Language Arts, Grade 7 Module 3A PCG Education,2015-12-14 Paths to College and Career Jossey Bass and PCG Education are proud to bring the Paths to College and Career English Language Arts ELA curriculum and professional development resources for grades 6 12 to educators across the country Originally developed for EngageNY and written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences the standards require Paths to College and Career includes daily lesson plans guiding questions recommended texts scaffolding strategies and other classroom resources Paths to College and Career is a concrete and practical ELA instructional program that engages students with compelling and complex texts At each grade level Paths to College and Career delivers a yearlong curriculum that develops all students ability to read closely and engage in text based discussions build evidence based claims and arguments conduct research and write from sources and expand their academic vocabulary Paths to College and Career s instructional resources address the needs of all learners including students with disabilities English language learners and gifted and talented students This enhanced curriculum provides teachers with freshly designed Teacher Guides that make the curriculum more accessible and flexible a Teacher Resource Book for each module that includes all of the materials educators need to manage instruction and Student Journals that give students learning tools for each module and a single place to organize and document their learning As the creators of the Paths ELA curriculum for grades 6 12 PCG Education provides a professional learning program that ensures the success of the curriculum The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning A train the trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches Paths offers schools and districts a unique approach to ensuring college and career readiness for all students providing state of the art curriculum and state of the art implementation Handbook of Field Experiments Esther Duflo,Abhijit Banerjee,2017-03-21 Handbook of Field Experiments Volume Two explains how to conduct experimental research presents a catalog of research to date and describes which areas remain to be explored The new volume includes sections on field experiments in education in developing countries how to design social protection programs a section on how to combat poverty and updates on data relating to the impact and determinants of health levels in low income countries Separating itself from circumscribed debates of specialists this volume surpasses the many journal articles and narrowly defined books written by practitioners This ongoing series will be of particular interest to scholars working with experimental methods Users will find results from politics education and more Balances methodological
