Asia-Pacific Trusts Law, Volume 1 Ying Khai Liew, Matthew Harding, 2021-08-26 At a time when Asia represents the fastest growing economic region

there is no better moment to consider what trusts law can contribute to societal stability and economic prosperity This book does this by offering the first work that systematically explores trusts law across the region Many Asian Pacific jurisdictions have integrated and developed trusts law in their legal systems either through colonial heritage or statutory activism But the diversity of legal traditions and local contexts has resulted in trusts laws having a significantly varied impact across the region In the modern globalised world there is growing need to adopt an outward looking approach in dealing with matters of common interest This book answers this need by bringing together leading legal scholars and practitioners in the region to explore the theory and practice of trusts law contextualised to specific jurisdictions in the Asia Pacific Exploring 17 jurisdictions in Asia it bring both an academic and practitioner perspective to trusts law in the region Science and Football A. Mark Williams,2023-05-22 This book presents a state of the art overview of the science underpinning talent identification and development in the world s most popular sport It covers a broad range of topics that span the various sub disciplines of sports science with contributions from some of the foremost scientists and applied practitioners globally The chapters provide readers with a comprehensive insight into how sport science is helping practitioners to create more evidence based approaches when attempting to identify and develop future generations of elite players rather than relying on tradition and precedence This book dispels some of the myths involved in talent identification and highlights how science is playing an ever increasing role in guiding and shaping the practices used at the most renowned professional clubs across the globe It is a must read for anyone involved in the game at any level including sports scientists medical staff coaches and administrators This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sports Sciences Internal Erosion in Earthdams, Dikes and Levees Stéphane Bonelli,Cristina Jommi,Donatella Sterpi,2018-08-31 This book gathers the peer reviewed contributions presented at the 26th Annual Meeting of the European Working Group on Internal Erosion in Embankment Dams Levees and Dikes and their Foundations EWG IE held in Milano Italy on 10 13 September 2018 The meeting served as a fertile platform for discussion sharing sound knowledge and introducing novel ideas on issues related to soil internal erosion in water retaining structures The contributions encompass various aspects of laboratory techniques and findings modelling and design criteria as well as prevention measures and field assessment The book is a valuable up to date tool that provides an essential overview of the subject for scientists and practitioners alike and inspires further investigations and research The Three Paths of Justice Neil Andrews,2018-05-08 This revised second edition takes account of developments in the field of dispute resolution including mediation and arbitration The book presents a concise account of the English system of civil litigation covering court proceedings in England and Wales It is an original and important study of a system which is the historical root of the US litigation system The volume offers a comprehensive and properly balanced account of the entire range of dispute resolution techniques As the first revised book on this subject to be published in the USA it enables American lawyers to gain an overview of the main institutions of English Civil Procedure including mediation and arbitration It will render the English system of civil justice accessible to law students in the US practitioners of law professors judges and policy makers Performance Analysis in Sport Miguel-Angel Gomez-Ruano, Sergio José Ibáñez, Anthony S. Leicht, 2020-12-29 This eBook is a collection of articles from a Frontiers Research Topic Frontiers Research Topics are very popular trademarks of the Frontiers Journals Series they are collections of at least ten articles all centered on a particular subject With their unique mix of varied contributions from Original Research to Review Articles Frontiers Research Topics unify the most influential researchers the latest key findings and historical advances in a hot research area Find out more on how to host your own Frontiers Research Topic or contribute to one as an author by contacting the Frontiers Editorial Office frontiersin.org/about/contact The Common Law Jurisprudence of the Conflict of Laws Sarah McKibbin, Anthony Kennedy, 2023-05-04 This book presents a collection of leading common law cases in private international law ranging from the 18th to the 21st century The cases traverse issues of jurisdiction choice of law and the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments Questions of marital validity domicile foreign immovable property and choice of law in contract are just some of the topics that this collection examines The unusual factual situations of some 18th and 19th century English cases also reveal compelling human interest stories and political controversies worthy of further exploration Drawing on a diverse team of contributors this edited collection showcases the research of eminent conflicts scholars together with emerging scholars from the United Kingdom Australia Canada Ireland and South Africa The Nature and Enforcement of Choice of Court Agreements Mukarrum Ahmed, 2017-10-05 PRAISE FOR THE BOOK This constitutes a work of impressive scholarship that will become a major reference point for future discourse on choice of court agreements Dr Ahmed advances a firm thesis in a lucid manner that will satisfy both academics and practitioners The discussion is supported by a monumental foundation of underpinning research Ahmed's monograph throughout shows clear understanding of underlying substantive laws and in Chapter 11 displays a refreshing willingness to engage in intelligent speculation on the implications of Brexit Professor David Milman University of Lancaster The book is an excellent attempt to understand the theoretical underpinnings of choice of court agreements in private international law Anyone with an interest in the theory and practice of choice of court agreements in particular in mechanisms for their enforcement should read this book They will find much of value by doing so Professor Paul Beaumont University of Aberdeen from the Series Editor's Preface This book examines the fundamental juridical nature classification and enforcement of choice of court agreements in international commercial litigation It is the first full length attempt to integrate the comparative and doctrinal analysis of choice of court agreements under the Brussels I Recast Regulation the Hague Convention on Choice of Court Agreements Hague Convention and the English common law jurisdictional regime into a theoretical framework In this regard the book analyses the impact of a multilateral and regulatory conception of private international law on the private law enforcement of choice of court agreements before the English courts In the process it both pre-empted and offers innovative solutions to issues that may arise under the jurisprudence of the emergent Brussels I Recast Regulation and the Hague Convention The need to understand the nature and enforcement of choice of court agreements before the English courts from the perspective of the EU private international law regime and the Hague Convention cannot be understated This important new study aims to fill an existing gap in the literature in relation to an account of choice of court agreements which explores and reconnects arguments drawn from international legal theory with legal practice However the scope of the work remains most relevant for cross border commercial lawyers interested in crafting pragmatic solutions to the conflicts of jurisdictions Fraud and Risk in Commercial Law Paul S Davies,Hans Tjio,2024-08-08

This book focuses on contemporary problems related to fraud and risk in commercial law It has been said by some that we are in a golden age of fraud In part this has been caused by globalisation technological changes and the financialisation of business This has resulted in the creation of automated linkages with integrated supply chains and the creation of systemic risks which have been exacerbated by new forms of intangible assets like tokens and their ease of movement While regulation has ebbed and flowed given the desire of governments to generate economic growth as well as the distrust of their coercive powers the courts have sought to strike a balance between considerations such as commercial certainty and fairness The book provides an analysis of key contemporary issues on the theme of fraud and risk in commercial law including technology and fraud secondary liability and failure to prevent economic crime abuse of business entities insolvency and creditor protection injunctions and other orders cross border issues the relationship between regulation and private law and solutions for policy makers Egalitarian Digital Privacy Tsachi Keren-Paz,2023-03-30

Should digital platforms be responsible for intimate images posted without the subject s consent Could the viewers of such images be liable simply for viewing them This book answers these questions in the affirmative while considering the social legal and technological features of unauthorized dissemination of intimate images or revenge porn In doing so it asks fundamental socio legal questions about responsibility causation and apportionment as well as conceptualizing private information as property With a focus on private law theory the book defines the appropriate scope of liability of platforms and viewers while critiquing both EU and US solutions to the problem Through its analysis the book develops a new theory of egalitarian digital privacy Economic Torts and Economic Wrongs John Eldridge,Michael Douglas,Claudia Carr,2021-09-23

This book explores contemporary issues in respect of causes of action which operate to protect a plaintiff s economic interests It examines the question from across the spectrum of private law Focusing mainly on common law principles it looks in particular at the treatment of such causes of action in the United Kingdom Australia Canada Singapore as well as other common law jurisdictions Addressing both theoretical and doctrinal issues this important book will appeal to both private law scholars and practitioners Palmer's Index to "The Times" Newspaper ,1888

The Law of Carriage of Goods by Sea Arun Kasi,2021-09-01 This book written in three parts covers the basics of the international trade financing and the legal framework related to the law of carriage of goods by sea elaborates on bills of lading in depth and sea waybills and ship's delivery orders in brief and charterparties in depth While the book is based on the English law cases and materials from other jurisdictions particularly Singapore Malaysia India the USA and Australia are brought in to provide an international perspective The practical analyses commentary and critiques of cases would be a useful guide for practitioners in developing case arguments Although written with practitioners academicians and students in mind the book will also serve as a useful guide for sea carriers freight forwarders international traders financiers etc as the complex subject is presented in reader friendly and easy to grasp manner

Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments

Adrian Briggs, 2015-06-12 Now in a fully updated sixth edition this book is an established treatise in the field of civil jurisdiction and judgments It states analyses illuminates and evaluates the law of civil jurisdiction and the enforcement of foreign judgments in English law with this new edition taking into account the implications of the new Brussels I Regulation recast Regulation EU 1215/2012 as well as the great number of developments in the case law which have taken place since 2009 This book looks in detail at the jurisdictional rules put in place by the recast Brussels I Regulation the common law rules of jurisdiction the principles according to which that jurisdiction will or will not be exercised the extent to which proceedings before a foreign court may be assisted or impeded obtaining interim and interlocutory relief recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments This text is an authoritative and comprehensive reference for all legal professionals working in commercial law across jurisdictions

The Conflict of Laws Adrian Briggs, 2019-10-24 This invaluable introduction to the study of the conflict of laws provides a survey and analysis of the rules of private international law as they apply in England Written to take account of the various possible outcomes of the Brexit process it goes as far as is possible to make sense of the effect it will have on English private international law The volume covers general principles jurisdiction and the effect of foreign judgments the law applicable to contractual and non contractual obligations the private international law of property of adults the increasingly complex law of children is described in bare outline and of corporations It does so in a manner which explains and illuminates the principles which underpin the subject in a clear and coherent fashion as the wealth of literature case law and legislation can often obscure the architecture of the subject and unnecessarily complicate its study This new edition organizes the existing material in light of European legislation on private international law reflecting the way in which an accurate representation of the topic requires it to be interpreted as European law with a common law periphery instead of common law with European legislative influences As at the time of writing and possibly for some time to come the consequences of Brexit are a mystery but the attempt is made to describe the various possible shapes which the subject will assume in the future The book adopts a pragmatic approach and avoids the more abstract theory as the theory of the conflict of laws is actually to be found in and by applying the legislation and jurisprudence to the cases and issues which arise in private international litigation and in giving legal advice
