

School Leader Speech

Austin Philie

Good afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. McCusker, faculty, staff, guests, and Cardigan brothers. My name is Austin Philie. I am here today with four of my good friends to speak to you about an important role in our community: School Leader—a position of honor and respect.

As we sit here today on this remarkable spring day in this wonderful place of gathering, we are focused on next year and who will be the ones to lead us in our journey. First, let's take a moment to thank Cedric for his fine work and ongoing leadership this year, as well as all the other leaders, titled or not. Without the 9th-grade leaders and all they have taught me, I would not be standing in front of you now.

When I think about School Leader, I think of what it means to the Cardigan community as a whole, not to me alone. Leadership is a concept that is sometimes hard to explain because it can mean many things to many people. Leadership occurs in the classroom, on the field, in the dorm, and many more places.

To me, a great leader is not someone who never makes mistakes, but someone who is willing to take chances and do what is right, regardless of the outcome. I believe that a successful and worthy leader possesses the following qualities:
