Dear Friends, Colleagues, Donors and Partners:

First and foremost, I would like to thank all of our donors, partners, staff and friends for your support during 2019. All of the accomplishments – the hundreds of children saved from trafficking and abandonment, the children and young people who experienced hours away from the violence of their homes and communities in HRI's safe spaces, the children whose health improved markedly because they received medical care, clean water, sanitation and good nutrition, the hundreds of women and moms who have been empowered to protect themselves and their children, and so much more - never could have happened without you!

In 2019, improving child outcomes and keeping families together was the focus of HRI's work. The challenge is always to achieve excellence in our work, and that is accomplished by re-committing time and time again to constantly evaluating our work, learning from our experiences, and that of others, and being willing and able to quickly and efficiently make necessary changes to achieve our objectives. Our goal never changes; however, the paths we take to achieve that goal will inevitably vary and mature. In the end, all of our work is geared towards the outstanding implementation of innovative and unique programs that are effective and where change is measurable. I feel confident in saying that HRI accomplished all of this in 2019!

Over the years, our work has taken us into the belly of the beast, fighting the scourges that challenge the life, health, and futures of the world's most vulnerable children. Our professional teams have risked their lives to save others. They have gone into the most violent communities to build coalitions with local leadership to ensure that children receive an education, that their health needs are addressed, and that they receive the nutrition they desperately need.

We are proud of our overseas teams - they are exemplary in their work and their heroism. Our U.S. based team is the best group of professionals in the world, and we are lucky to count on them every day to provide support, guidance, and leadership to the field.

Our board is strong, independent, and responsible - always cognizant of their fiduciary role and their responsibility to ensure excellent governance within the organization. I am proud to be a member of the HRI team.

But you, our donors, friends, partners, are the key to everything we do! Thank you for your support, your confidence in our work, and for affecting positive change in the lives of thousands of children and families struggling for survival every single day. We hope to count on you in 2020!!

With immense gratitude,
