Dear Parents

it is about time for you or me to write. perhaps it will be as well for me as i have lately had a letter from the west. my health is very good and has been since i was at Washington we have a very open winter so far no sleighing yet of any consequence but such whetting i never saw it is like unto a rail road. Aunt Eliza's family are all well they have all gone to Boston to night to a wedding Cyrus Hapgood is married to night. Abigail is in a store this winter in town. Harriet keeps school close to me this winter. i have not heard from Mark this winter, i am now going to write to him shortly. now i will tell you something about Mary and her husband says their letter was mailed Dec 20 i received it the 12 of this month they were all well and have been the year past it has been very healthy there the last season no shaking among them. Mary wrote that she had not heard from home since about the time that Joseph died that great days work she said that her new sister wrote a good long letter. she would like to tell her very well they have had some very cold weather lately but no snow.
