

The background of the entire cover is a dramatic, monochromatic image. It depicts a large, dark ship, possibly a slave ship, resting on a rocky, uneven shore. The ship is silhouetted against a bright, full moon that dominates the upper half of the frame. The sky is filled with wispy clouds, and the water in the foreground is dark and reflective. The overall mood is somber and evocative.

Lost And Without An Identity Until Now:

The Lost Identity RITA JOSHI, 2017-12-08 Disha is a timid girl brought up by her parents as a homely quiet girl trained to be seen rather than heard She marries Giri a man her parents choose for her She goes on to be the ideal Indian wife barely questioning or rebelling and catering to the needs of her husband and an insecure mother in law Despite her constant inner conflict arising out of introspection observation and education she remains largely silent and unheard in her marriage as she was during her childhood Taunted and belittled by them her individuality slowly disappears at least to the viewer's eye Will she ever emerge out of the shadows The Lost Identity is a must read for teenagers and parents reflecting untold and little understood problems of millions of Indian girls through the protagonist Disha

Identity Crisis Daniel Day, 2013-11-27 A train with 184 passengers derailed and crashed high in the Colorado mountains on a cold December day in 2001 No one survived but one young man He had been thrown across a ravine and landed on a flat rock unconscious When he regained consciousness he discovered he had amnesia He didn't know where he was where he came from or where he was going He didn't know his name and had lost all of his identification and money during the wreck During the next couple of days he worked his way down the mountain until he found a small town He tried to get work at different businesses in town but was unsuccessful During the months that followed as he struggled to survive and search for his identity he encountered people of many different backgrounds He punished some people destroyed a drug ring exposed the Mob dealt with street thugs and helped police catch a gang of thieves He helped many other people an old lady with little money an abducted and abused girl two mothers living in a homeless shelter a destitute woman and a distraught special needs girl He also saved one man's company and another man's ranch All the people who met this unknown man were amazed at the deeds he performed the people he helped and the crooks he destroyed all while going through an identity crisis Who was this man

Born into Greatness and Lost in Identity Minister Gilbert B. Wright, 2021-02-08 YESTERDAY IS OVER IT ENDED AT MIDNIGHT It's time to wake up into the newness of Christ Jesus through relationship with your savior May the principles in this book dare to change you mindset actions and overall be enthusiastic about a lifestyle transformation Most of the church is still locked in a time warp of self-defeating behavior Therefore as a church we have become stationary and not missionary I pray that the blessing attached to this book help you to find the proper roadmap back to Christ and answer many questions you are in pursuit of It provides an overview of the complexity that we must come back to in order to build a true relationship with Christ We must not continue to hide behind the walls of the Church and faking our way through life We are using the church as a metaphor to run from life And we really have not developed a real relationship with Christ but we have switched drugs Now you have taken a hit off the new drug called church business And we're taking this new drug as a drug replacement for addictive behavior that really has not gone away Never before in the history of the church has there been a cry out from heaven for the true church to come back under subjection unto itself Not the four walls of the building I mean YOU Therefore life becomes and experiment instead of a purpose driven life designed by God himself This book was insured by God and has a powerful healing and restoration wrapped up in every fiber Every word pierces the heart and touches the very depths of the soul Come take a journey with me as we truly confront layer by layer of how we became Born into Greatness and Lost in Identity Like Lazarus we are commanded to come forth into the newness of Christ May your life never ever be the same May the rest of your life be the best of our life in the mighty unmatched and majestic name of Jesus Amen

Identity and Social Change Joseph E. Davis, 2011-12-31 Identity and Social Change examines the thorny problem of modern identity Trenchant critiques have come from identity politics focusing on the construction of difference and the solidarity of minorities and from academic deconstructions of modern subjectivity This volume places identity in a broader sociological context of destabilizing and reintegrating forces The contributors first explore identity in light of economic changes consumerism and globalization then focus on the question of identity dissolution Zygmunt Bauman examines the effects of consumerism and considers the constraints these place on the disadvantaged Drawing together discourses of the body and globalization David Harvey considers the growth of the wage labor system worldwide and its consequences for worker consciousness Mike Featherstone outlines a rethinking of citizenship and identity formation in light of the realities of globalization and new information technologies Part two opens with Robert Dunn s examination of cultural commodification and the attenuation of social relations He argues that the media and marketplace are part of a general destabilization of identity formation Kenneth Gergen maintains that proliferating communications technologies undermine the traditional conceptions of self and community and suggest the need for a new base for building the moral society In the final chapter Harvie Ferguson argues that despite the contemporary infatuation with irony the decline of the notion of the self as an inner depth effectively severs the long connection between irony and identity

Culture and Identity in a Muslim Society Gary S. Gregg, 2007-02-15

In the last fifteen years psychologists have rediscovered culture and its influence on emotion thought and self Many researchers have come to the conclusion that the world s cultures can be ranked according to the degree to which they are individualist or collectivist with Western cultures falling at the individualist end and non Western cultures at the collectivist end These scholars argue that while individualist cultures give rise to independent selves leading Westerners to think and act autonomously collectivist cultures foster interdependent selves leading non Westerners embedded in social relationships to think and act relationally Culture and Identity in a Muslim Society presents an alternative to the individualist collectivist approach to identity Unlike most psychological and anthropological studies of culture and self Gary Gregg s work directly investigates individuals using study of lives style interviews with young adults living in villages and small towns in southern Morocco Analyzing these young adults life narratives Gregg builds a theory of culture and identity that differs from prevailing psychological and anthropological models in important respects In contrast to modernist theories of identity as unified the life narratives show individuals to articulate a small set of shifting identities In contrast to post modern theories that claim people have a kaleidoscopic multiplicity of fluid identities the narratives show that the identities are integrated by repeated use of culturally specific self symbols metaphors and story plots Most importantly the life narratives show these young Moroccans self representations to be pervasively shaped by the volatile cultural struggle between Western style modernity and authentic Muslim tradition Offering a new approach to the study of identity the volume will be of interest to cross cultural psychologists anthropologists scholars of Middle East societies and researchers specializing in the study of lives

Trauma in 20th Century Multicultural American Poetry Jamie D. Barker, 2020-02-06

In Trauma in 20th Century Multicultural American Poetry Jamie D Barker argues that by using literary trauma theory in conjunction with a reader response approach readers can gain a better understanding of how poetry can work towards building community and encouraging empowerment over oppression by establishing collectives of people who may share similar stories and experiences connected to trauma Rather than demonstrating how the poetry may fail or trying to establish what traumatic events the speaker or poet in some studies may have encountered and the significance thereof this study focuses on how the reader may find community with the ideas represented within the poem The poetry of various ethnicities are examined including African American poets Amiri Baraka and Lucille Clifton Native American poets Robin Coffee Linda Hogan and Peter Blue Cloud as well as Japanese American poets Mitsuye Yamada Keiho Soga and Lawson Fusao Inada Although many of these poets have had their poems examined in the past none have been explored through this type of approach Furthermore very few studies have expanded upon the ideas of literary trauma theory by using reader response and no writings have examined the idea of ambivalence in poetry as this study does Migrants of Identity Andrew Dawson,Nigel
