Different Loving William Brame, Gloria Brame, Jon Jacobs, 1996-01-13 A detailed eye opening account of the real sexual underground in America a thorough and serious study Playboy From Different Loving In order to understand unusual sexualities such as dominance and submission one first has to consider the question What is normal If the unique function of sex is reproductive and the only reason men and women should engage in sex is for the purpose of creating a new life then only heterosexual intercourse is normal By this standard many common acts even contraception must be considered aberrant Reproductive relevance was the Victorian standard of normalcy and even today many of the laws in the United States still abide by that model But people have always pursued sex for both reproduction and for pleasure and well being We start from the premise that sex for pleasure is a normal human drive and is acceptable when it brings pleasure to both partners From this perspective D S is simply a different kind of loving We hope to add to the greater body of knowledge about what people really do behind closed doors with the people they most love and trust Perhaps Different Loving will help open the door for further research into the

that the past two centuries were incapable of answering Does love only last the time of a kiss Is its promise fatally destined to dissolve What about violence Physical emotional temporal Is it an ineliminable part of love or its most extreme profanation And what is the mystery that accompanies loves that know how to last without resigning themselves to the death of desire It is to answer some of these questions that I wrote this text Love is an unconscious process that dominates reason and destroys it when reason cannot be a mode of communication Hence the amorous romance is madness and this text is written as a loud reminder
