Why the Humanities Matter Frederick Luis Aldama,2022-02-24 This wide ranging study of the influence of postmodernism on contemporary culture offers a trenchant and uplifting defense of the humanities Is there life after postmodernism Many claim that it sounded the death knell for history art ideology science possibly all of Western philosophy and even the concept of reality itself Responding to essential questions regarding whether the humanities can remain politically and academically relevant amid this twenty first century uncertainty Why the Humanities Matter offers a guided tour of the modern condition calling upon thinkers in a variety of disciplines to affirm essential concepts such as truth goodness and beauty Through a lens of new humanism Frederick Aldama provides a liberating examination of the current cultural repercussions of assertions by such revolutionary theorists as Said Foucault Lacan and Derrida as well as Latin Americanists such as Sommer and Mignolo Emphasizing pedagogy and popular culture with equal verve Aldama presents an enlightening way to explore what culture actually does who generates it and how it shapes our identities and the role of academia in sustaining it Preaching

Black Lives (Matter) Gayle Fisher-Stewart,2020-07-17 An anthology that asks What does it mean to be church where Black lives matter Prophetic imagination would have us see a future in which all Christians would be free of the soul warping belief and practice of racism This collection of reflections is an incisive look into that future today It explains why preaching about race is important in the elimination of racism in the church and society and how preaching has the ability to transform hearts While programs protests conferences and laws are all important and necessary less frequently discussed is the role of the church specifically the Anglican Church and Episcopal Church in ending systems of injustice The ability to preach from the pulpit is mandatory for every person clergy or lay regardless of race who has the responsibility to spread the gospel For there s a saying in the Black church If it isn t preached from the pulpit it isn t important Between Matter and Method

Gretchen Bakke,Marina Peterson,2020-12-01 Building on the lively exchange between anthropology and art that has emerged in recent years Between Matter and Method makes a bold and creative contribution to this rapidly growing field Taking an expansive approach to the arts it finds commonalities in approaches that engage with visual artifacts sound performance improvisation literature dance theater and design The book questions current disciplinary boundaries and offers a new model grounded in a shared methodology for interdisciplinary encounter between art and anthropology Gretchen Bakke and Marina Peterson have gathered together anthropologists whose work is notable for engaging the arts and creative practice in conceptually rigorous and methodologically innovative ways including Kathleen Stewart Keith Murphy Natasha Myers Stuart McLean Craig Campbell and Roger Sansi Essays span the globe from Indonesia West Virginia and Los Angeles in the United States to the Orkney Islands in the UK and Russia and Spain Activities for a Differentiated Classroom: Level

Welcome to Willow Falls where dimension tripping werewolves angels popping through walls and a teleporting cat are all part of an average day Not that Cass buys into any of that nonsense But when dragons actual dragons sneak into her back yard at night to make a mess of her trash bins she finds it impossible to ignore Not knowing what to do Cass turns to her eccentric new neighbor Charlie for help Together the two along with a ragtag group of oddballs strive to discover more about these creatures Where did they come from How did they end up in the woods behind her house And how does the teleporting cat fit into all of this Cass must wrap her mind around a new reality of superscience parallel worlds and time travel in order to keep her scaly new friends safe from the shadowy corporation bent on exploiting them and possibly all of Willow Falls

Control of Particulate Matter Contamination in Healthcare Manufacturing Thomas A. Barber, 1999-10-31 Written by an expert in the industry this text addresses the specifics of contamination including particle origination characterization identification and elimination with a special focus on quality The author offers a clear and concise review of particle populations and their control in stability efficacy and predictability in the manufacture of healthcare products He brings together information from over 100 Web sites and other sources and casts it into a practical framework that will help readers ensure their company's success The book contains thirty two color photomicrographs and over eighty figures tables and charts

Building Writing Center Assessments That Matter Ellen Schendel, William J. Macauley, 2012-10-16 No less than other divisions of the college or university contemporary writing centers find themselves within a galaxy of competing questions and demands that relate to assessment questions and demands that usually embed priorities from outside the purview of the writing center itself Writing centers are used to certain kinds of assessment both quantitative and qualitative but are often unprepared to address larger institutional or societal issues In Building Writing Center Assessments that Matter Schendel and Macauley start from the kinds of assessment strengths already in place in writing centers and they build a framework that can help writing centers satisfy local needs and put them in useful dialogue with the larger needs of their institutions while staying rooted in writing assessment theory The authors begin from the position that tutoring writers is already an assessment activity and that good assessment practice rooted in the work of Adler Kassner O'Neill Moore and Huot already reflects the values of writing center theory and practice They offer examples of assessments developed in local contexts and of how assessment data built within those contexts can powerfully inform decisions and shape the futures of local writing centers With additional contributions by Neal Lerner Brian Huot and Nicole Caswell and with a strong commitment to honoring on site local needs the volume does not advocate a one size fits all answer But like the modeling often used in a writing consultation examples here illustrate how important assessment principles have been applied in a range of local contexts Ultimately Building Writing Assessments that Matter describes a theory stance toward assessment for writing centers that honors the uniqueness of the writing center context and examples of assessment in action that are concrete manageable portable and adaptable
