Memorandum Of Rhino Poaching Research 2014

Karen Clark

Memorandum Of Rhino Poaching Research 2014:

Operation Lock and the War on Rhino Poaching John Hanks, 2015-05-08 The aggressive poaching of rhinos needs to be countered with equal aggression So argued Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands the founder president of the World Wide Fund for Nature WWF at a 1987 meeting with John Hanks conservation expert and WWF s head in Africa The result was Operation Lock a secret initiative funded by Prince Bernhard and staffed by former SAS operatives Operation Lock set up headquarters in Johannesburg and extended its reach into neighbouring states Namibia Zambia Botswana Swaziland and Mozambique Its operatives planned to train game rangers to pose as rhino horn traders in order to entrap buyers and to expose the kingpins who were driving the trade It was a controversial approach all the more because it was working within apartheid South Africa in the late 1980s When the existence of the project was finally leaked WWF denied any involvement and John Hanks took the fall In Operation Lock and the War on Rhino Poaching John Hanks finally tells the story of these explosive events from 25 years ago As a leading international authority on conservation he also deals with the scourge of rhino poaching up to the present and gives powerful and controversial criticism of some of the current policies to curb poaching

Youth Revolution Kiara Nirghin, 2019-01-01 Youth Revolution is the inspirational story of how Kiara Nirghin a sixteen year old high school student from Johannesburg overcame severe health obstacles to win the grand prize at the 2016 International Google Science Fair for her unique and innovative solution to worldwide drought Having experienced bacterial meningitis undiagnosed bilharzia and severe weight loss Kiara was forced to postpone her school career for hospitalisation with a real chance of losing her hearing her sight and the use of her limbs Youth Revolution not only covers her journey from the hospital bed to the international stage as the winner of the science award but also looks at issues surrounding stagnant youth innovation while considering the dangers of lacking diversity in STEM science technology engineering and maths The book includes contributions from prominent women in science and education among them Malala Yousafzai the Pakistani activist for female education and the youngest Nobel Prize laureate Youth Revolution is a deeply human and truly inspirational real life story that will enthrall teenagers and adults alike proving that even ordinary teenagers can do extraordinary things Communicating Endangered Species Eric Freedman, Sara Shipley Hiles, David B.

Sachsman, 2021-08-04 Communicating Endangered Species Extinction News and Public Policy is a multidisciplinary environmental communication book that takes a distinctive approach by connecting how media and culture depict and explain endangered species with how policymakers and natural resource managers can or do respond to these challenges in practical terms Extinction isn't new However the pace of extinction is accelerating globally The International Union for Conservation of Nature classifies more than 26 000 species as threatened The causes are many including climate change overdevelopment human exploitation disease overhunting habitat destruction and predators The willingness and the ability of ordinary people governments scientists nongovernmental organizations and businesses to slow this deeply disturbing acceleration are uncertain Meanwhile researchers around the world are laboring to better understand and communicate the possibility and implications of extinctions and to discover effective tools and public policies to combat the threats to species survival This book presents a history of news coverage of endangered species around the world examining how and why journalists and other communicators wrote what they did how attitudes have changed and why they have changed It draws on the latest research by chapter authors who are a mix of social scientists communication experts and natural scientists Each chapter includes a mass media and or cultural aspect This book will be essential reading for students natural resource managers government officials environmental activists and academics interested in conservation and biodiversity environmental communication and journalism and public policy Environmental Crime in the United States Karen Clark, 2024-07-24 Environmental Crime in the United States provides an introduction to the laws that govern environmental crime how these laws are implemented and enforced and the impact they have had since their passing in the twentieth century and their continued applications Environmental crimes such as wildlife trafficking over fishing artisanal mining and deforestation are lucrative contributors to a global illicit trade market and sources of cheap resources for corporations to exploit This book presents a review of U S based laws and regulations regarding such environmental crimes at the state and federal level combined with examples of international convention or trade agreements which can be prosecuted within the United States It examines attempts to modify these laws the exceptions granted to prevent enforcement and the ability of political and social groups to address inefficiencies of the laws or their implementations Both criminal and administrative laws are reviewed to assess how laws governing the environment compare to other areas of law that seek to protect and improve social well being and public health this includes a review of how environmental crimes overlap with general crimes and how these crimes fuel illicit commerce while strengthening international crime syndicates Trends such as the actions taken by non governmental organizations and other entities other than law enforcement to stop environmental crimes such as poaching will be explained with a discussion of how environmental crimes spurn illicit markets and provide lucrative schemes for international crime rings as well as corporations This book will be of great interest to students of environmental crime and justice green criminology environmental conservation natural resource management and environmental law

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events AIM Reports, 2014 Conservation of Species and the Endangered Rhinoceros United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science and Technology. Subcommittee on Natural Resources, Agriculture Research, and Environment, 1987 Killing for Profit Julian Rademeyer, 2012-11-08 A terrifying true story of greed corruption depravity and ruthless criminal enterprise On the black markets of Southeast Asia rhino horn is worth more than gold cocaine and heroin This is the chilling story of a more than two year long investigation into a dangerous criminal underworld where merciless syndicates will stop at nothing to attain their prize It is a tale of greed folly and corruption and of an increasingly desperate battle to save the rhino which has survived for more than 50 million years from extinction Killing for Profit is a meticulous devastating and revelatory account of one of the world's most secretive trades It exposes poachers gangsters con men mercenaries killers gunrunners diplomats government officials and other key players behind the slaughter And it follows the bloody trail from the front lines of the rhino wars in South Africa Zimbabwe and Mozambique to the medicine markets of Vietnam and the lair of a wildlife trafficking kingpin on the banks of the Mekong River in Laos
