Midnight in Chernobyl Adam Higginbotham, 2020-02-04 A New York Times Best Book of the Year A Time Best Book of the Year A Kirkus Reviews Best Nonfiction Book of the Year 2020 Andrew Carnegie Medals for Excellence Winner From journalist Adam Higginbotham the New York Times bestselling account that reads almost like the script for a movie The Wall Street Journal a powerful investigation into Chernobyl and how propaganda secrecy and myth have obscured the true story of one of the history's worst nuclear disasters Early in the morning of April 26 1986 Reactor Number Four of the Chernobyl Atomic Energy Station exploded triggering one of the twentieth century's greatest disasters In the thirty years since then Chernobyl has become lodged in the collective nightmares of the world shorthand for the spectral horrors of radiation poisoning for a dangerous technology slipping its leash for ecological fragility and for what can happen when a dishonest and careless state endangers its citizens and the entire world But the real story of the accident clouded from the beginning by secrecy propaganda and misinformation has long remained in dispute Drawing on hundreds of hours of interviews conducted over the course of more than ten years as well as letters unpublished memoirs and documents from recently declassified archives Adam Higginbotham brings the disaster to life through the eyes of the men and women who witnessed it firsthand The result is a riveting deeply reported reconstruction Los Angeles Times and a definitive account of an event that changed history a story that is more complex more human and more terrifying than the Soviet myth The most complete and compelling history yet The Christian Science Monitor Higginbotham's superb enthralling and necessarily terrifying extraordinary The New York Times book is an indelible portrait of the lessons learned when mankind seeks to bend the natural world to his will lessons which in the face of climate change and other threats remain not just vital but necessary

Australian Women in Advertising in the Twentieth Century J. Dickenson, 2016-04-29 When did Australian women first enter the advertising industry The stereotypical advertising executive might be a pony tailed Ferrari driving youngish man but women have worked in Australian advertising agencies from the first years of the modern industry and today they comprise half of the industry's workforce Australian Women in Advertising in the Twentieth Century rescues these women from their obscurity By employing a broader definition of advertising than usual this study reveals the important role women have played in the development of the Australian advertising industry sheds light on women's struggle to reach the higher echelons of the industry and considers why the popular image of the advertising executive is at such variance from the reality The experiences of these remarkable women across a century of Australian advertising provide valuable information on the role of gender in the development of this ubiquitous industry as well as the encroachment of consumer culture Student Recruitment Agents in International Higher Education Pii-Tuulia Nikula, Vincenzo Raimo, Eddie West, 2023-05-30 With a focus on the growing number of institutions employing commercial agents to support international student recruitment Student Recruitment Agents in International Higher Education provides an evidence based exploration of this phenomenon and will increase the reader's understanding of the multiple dimensions of agent engagement its contradictions and complexities This book explores who and what these education agents are what students and higher education institutions can expect from a good agent how bad agents can be identified and avoided and what we learn from the reasons for the development of these agents in the first place Offering theoretical perspectives with practical applications this volume features contributions from academics and scholar practitioners laying out fresh perspectives and insights on topics such as process transparency developing agent policy and procedures and government regulations Providing the ideal reference for students embarking on international study agents higher educational institutions government accreditation agencies researchers and practitioners this insightful book acts as a critical basis for further research and improvements in higher education practice
