Multilingualism John C. Maher, 2017-05-18 The languages of the world can be seen and heard in cities and towns forests and isolated settlements as well as on the internet and in international organizations like the UN or the EU How did the world acquire so many languages Why can't we all speak one language like English or Esperanto And what makes a person bilingual Multilingualism language diversity in society is a perfect expression of human plurality About 6 500 7 000 languages are spoken written and signed throughout the linguistic landscape of the world by people who communicate in more than one language at work or in the family or community Many origin myths like Babel called it a punishment but multilingualism makes us who we are and plays a large part of our sense of belonging Languages are instruments for interacting with the cultural environment and their ecology is complex They can die Tasmanian or decline then revive Manx and Hawaiian reconstitute from older forms modern Hebrew gain new status Catalan and Maori or become autonomous national languages Croatian Languages can even play a supportive and symbolic role as some territories pursue autonomy or nationhood such as in the cases of Catalonia and Scotland In this Very Short Introduction John C Maher shows how multilingualism offers cultural diversity complex identities and alternative ways of doing and knowing to hybrid identities Increasing multilingualism is drastically changing our view of the value of language and our notion of the part language plays in national and cultural identities At the same time multilingualism can lead to social and political conflict unequal power relations issues of multiculturalism and discussions over national or official languages with struggles over language rights of local and indigenous communities Considering multilingualism in the context of globalization Maher also looks at the fate of many endangered languages as they disappear from the world ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Twelve Lectures on Multilingualism David Singleton, Larissa Aronin, 2018-11-20 This major new textbook offers an accessible introduction to many of the most interesting areas in the study of multilingualism It consists of twelve lectures written by leading researchers each dedicated to a particular topic of importance Each lecture offers a state of the art authoritative review of a subdiscipline of the field The volume sheds light on the ways in which the use and acquisition of languages are changing providing new insights into the nature of contemporary multilingualism It will be of interest both to undergraduate and postgraduate students working in linguistics related disciplines and students in associated social sciences Sociolinguistics John Edwards, 2013-07-11 In this Very Short Introduction John Edwards offers the most up to date brief overview available of sociolinguistics with side trips into the sociology of language and psycholinguistics Language Contact. Volume 1 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandenbussche, 2019-08-19 Language Contact An International Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of current topics in research on language contact Broadly conceived it stands out for its international approach to language contact complementing the theoretical state of the art with examples from traditionally eclipsed areas and languages Next to a thorough introductory overview of the ground breaking methodological and theoretical approaches that shaped the discipline ample attention goes to the new and innovative insights on language contact in the 21st century Combining concise introductory contributions with in depth treatment of the most relevant case studies in the field the handbook speaks to both junior and established scholars

Language Awareness in Multilingual Classrooms in Europe Christine Hélot, Carolien Frijns, Koen Gorp, Sven Sierens, 2018-04-23 Within the scope of today's globalisation linguistic diversity is a given fact of the world we live in In several educational contexts in Europe language awareness LA activities have been introduced with the objective to prepare pupils cognitively socially and or critically for life as multilingual open minded and or empowered citizens in a diverse world Despite previous research in various contexts the concept of LA remains problematic a generally accepted evidence based conceptualisation is missing This confronts both research and education with a challenge in order to develop LA activities implement them successfully in educational contexts and achieve the expected outcomes we should know what the concept stands for how it works and why we would choose to implement it in classrooms or not This volume focuses on three apparent simple questions what how and why The first question what refers to the conceptual mess of LA The second question how refers to the implementation of LA activities in several educational contexts The third question why is a recurrent theme running through all the chapters and deals with a reflection on the way we deal unconsciously with LA activities in education

Translation, Mediation and Accessibility for Linguistic Minorities María Pilar Castillo Bernal, Marta Estévez Grossi, 2022-04-15 Linguistic minorities are everywhere and they are diverse In this context linguistic mediation activities whether translation or interpreting are key to the social inclusion of any kind of linguistic minority In most societies autochthonous linguistic minorities coexist with foreignspeaking minorities and people with or without disabilities who rely linguistically or medially adapted on texts to access information The present volume draws on this broad understanding of the concept of linguistic minorities to explore some of the newest developments in the field of translation studies and linguistics The articles are structured around three main axes accessibility of content especially audiovisual translation intralingual translation including initiatives regarding plain language easy to read and easy language mediation for minorities in a broader sense and language ideologies
