Introduction to Criminology Pamela J. Schram, Stephen G. Tibbetts, 2017-02-13 Introduction to Criminology Why Do They Do It Second Edition by Pamela J Schram Stephen G Tibbetts offers a contemporary and integrated discussion of the key theories that help us understand crime in the 21st century With a focus on why offenders commit crimes this bestseller skillfully engages students with real world cases and examples to help students explore the fundamentals of criminology To better align with how instructors actually teach this course coverage of violent and property crimes has been integrated into the theory chapters so students can clearly understand the application of theory to criminal behavior Unlike other introductory criminology textbooks the Second Edition discusses issues of diversity in each chapter and covers many contemporary topics that are not well represented in other texts such as feminist criminology cybercrime hate crimes white collar crime homeland security and identity theft Transnational comparisons regarding crime rates and the methods other countries use to deal with crime make this edition the most universal to date and a perfect companion for those wanting to learn about criminology in context The Opening of American Law Herbert Hovenkamp, 2014-09-22 Two Victorian Era intellectual movements changed the course of American legal thought Darwinian natural selection and marginalist economics The two movements rested on fundamentally inconsistent premises Darwinism emphasized instinct random selection and determinism marginalism emphasized rational choice American legal theory managed to accommodate both although to different degrees in different disciplines The two movements also developed mutually exclusive scientific methodologies Darwinism emphasizing external indicators of welfare such as productivity education or health while marginalists emphasized market choice Historians have generally exaggerated the role of Darwinism in American legal thought while understating the role of marginalist economics This book explores these issues in several legal disciplines and time periods including Progressive Era redistributive policies American common law public law and laws regarding corporations and competition One is Progressive Era movements for redistributive policies about taxation and public goods Darwinian science also dominated the law of race relations while criminal law reflected an inconsistent mixture of Darwinian and marginalist incentive based theories The common law including family law contract property and tort moved from emphasis on correction of past harms to management of ongoing risk and relationship A chapter on Legal Realism emphasizes the Realists indebtedness to institutional economics a movement that powerfully influenced American legal theory long after it fell out of favor with economists Five chapters on the corporation innovation and competition policy show how marginalist economics transformed business policy The ironic exception was patent law which developed in relative insulation from economic concerns about innovation policy The book concludes with three chapters on public law emphasizing the role of institutionalist economics in policy making during and after the New Deal A lengthy epilogue then explores the variety of postwar attempts to reconstruct a defensible and more market oriented rule of law after the decline of Legal Realism and the New Deal Lone-actor Terrorism Jacob C. Holzer, Andrea J. Dew, Patricia R. Recupero, Paul Gill, 2022 Drawing on insights across clinical and forensic mental health as well as related fields in sociology and security this edited volume provides a diverse yet authoritative overview for those interested in better understanding the threats of lone actor terrorism and its professional response The New York Times Index ,2007 Who's Who in the World, 1978-1979 Marquis Who's Who, LLC, 1978 Chicago Tribune ,1978 The Farmer ,1935 Who's Who in American Law ,1983-10 Who's Who in the West Marquis Who's Who, 2006-06 Michigan Business Directory ,1998 Who's who in the Midwest ,2004
