Head Girl Speech

Hello, my name is Aadya Aggarwal and I would like to be your Junior School Head Girl.

Firstly, thank you for giving me your time and the opportunity to present myself. It seems only yesterday that I sat where you all are now, and today I stand tall on this platform, with bigger dreams and greater ambitions. I believe that at home we have family to guide us, at school, we have teachers; but we all need a friend, someone that we can relate to, approach when we face dilemmas, share problems and fears with. As Head Girl, I can be that very friend. I am responsible, considerate, friendly, trustworthy and a strong leader. I make sure everyone's ideas are heard, and I am confident when expressing my opinion, even if it is different to others.

I know you would all vote for me if I said there was to be no homework ever again – but I'm afraid that that's not going to happen any time soon. However, I do believe a problem shared is a problem solved. No, that does not mean you share your homework with others and get the answers. What it means is that you go to someone, like the Head Girl and we'd solve the problem together, as one. And I know I can handle that role perfectly.

Whilst I'm not your fairy godmother, who can grant all your wishes, I am a great listener and communicator, who strives to complete any task I've been given. Over my years at Northwood College, I've realised being Head Girl isn't about being better than anyone else. No, it's about having the trust of the whole school to represent it in the best way possible.

Thank you for listening and please vote for me, because I'm sure it's a decision you won't regret.
