Hotel Rwanda Activities:

Inside the Hotel Rwanda Edouard Kayihura, Kerry Zukus, 2014-04-01 In 2004 the Academy Award nominated movie Hotel Rwanda lionized hotel manager Paul Rusesabagina for single handedly saving the lives of all who sought refuge in the Hotel des Milles Collines during Rwanda's genocide against the Tutsi in 1994. Because of the film the real life Rusesabagina has been compared to Oskar Schindler but unbeknownst to the public the hotel's refugees don't endorse Rusesabagina's version of the events. In the wake of Hotel Rwanda's international success Rusesabagina is one of the most well known Rwandans and now the smiling face of the very Hutu Power groups who drove the genocide. He is accused by the Rwandan prosecutor general of being a genocide negationist and funding the terrorist group Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Rwanda (FDLR). In Inside the Hotel Rwanda survivor Edouard Kayihura tells his own personal story of what life was really like during those harrowing 100 days within the walls of that infamous hotel and offers the testimonies of others who survived there from Hutu and Tutsi to UN peacekeepers. Kayihura tells of his life in a divided society and his journey to the place he believed would be safe from slaughter. Inside the Hotel Rwanda exposes Paul Rusesabagina as a profiteering politically ambitious Hutu Power sympathizer who extorted money from those who sought refuge threatening to send those who did not pay to the genocidaires despite pleas from the hotel's corporate ownership to stop. Inside the Hotel Rwanda is at once a memoir, a critical deconstruction of a heralded Hollywood movie alleged to be factual, and a political analysis aimed at exposing a falsely created hero using his fame to be a political force spouting the same ethnic apartheid that caused the genocide two decades ago. American Film and Society since 1945 Leonard Quart, Albert Auster, 2018-04-19 From Steven Spielberg's Lincoln to Clint Eastwood's American Sniper this fifth edition of this classic film study text adds even more recent films and examines how these movies depict and represent the feelings and values of American society. One of the few authoritative books about American film and society American Film and Society since 1945 combines accessible fun to read text with a detailed insightful and scholarly political and social analysis that thoroughly explores the relationship of American film to society and provides essential historical context. The historical overview provides a capsule analysis of both American and Hollywood history for the most recent decade as well as past eras in which topics like American realism, Vietnam, counterculture, revolutions, and 1960s films and Hollywood depictions of big business like Wall Street are covered. Readers will better understand the explicit and hidden meanings of films and appreciate the effects of the passion and personal engagement that viewers experience with films. This new edition prominently features a new chapter on American and Hollywood history from 2010 to 2017 giving readers an expanded examination of a breadth of culturally and socially important modern films that serves student research or pleasure reading. Engaging the Past examines the making and meaning of history for everyday viewers Contemporary media can encourage complex interactions with the past that have far reaching consequences for history and politics Viewers experience these representations personally cognitively and bodily but as this book reveals not just by identifying with the characters portrayed Some of the works considered in this volume include the films Hotel Rwanda 2004 Good Night and Good Luck 2005 and Milk 2008 the television dramas Deadwood Mad Men and Rome the reality shows Frontier House Colonial House and Texas Ranch House and The Secret Annex Online accessed through the Anne Frank House website and the Kristallnacht exhibit accessed through the United States Holocaust Museum website These mass cultural texts cultivate what Alison Landsberg calls an affective engagement with the past tying the viewer to an event or person and fostering a sense of intimacy that does more than transport the viewer back in time Affect she suggests can also work to disorient the viewer forcibly pushing him or her out of the narrative and back into his or her own body By analyzing these specific popular history formats Landsberg shows the unique way they provoke historical thinking and produce historical knowledge prompting a reconsideration of what constitutes history and an understanding of how history works in the contemporary mediated public sphere

Moral Dilemmas in the Discourse of Cinema, Ethics and Society Innocent Uwah, 2014-10-28 This is a book dedicated to underpinning ethics in cinema and society It does this by articulating the fact that human choices as done by filmmakers and movie audiences constitute sites for deconstructing ethical issues in film matters Alongside the actions of filmmakers and movie consumers are plotlines of narratives where the choices of characters are indices for navigating moral dilemmas too The arguments for censorship in today's digitally challenging world where films are more than ever consumed via online platforms is also explored This book therefore fills a gap in underpinning ethical matters at different levels of film production and consumption practices especially in examining African cinema and Nollywood Nigerian cinema in particular
