

DEAR EDUCATOR,

In 1994 almost one million people were killed in a systematic genocide in the central African country of Rwanda. As the world stood by, a handful of brave, resourceful and inspiring individuals did all they could to save Rwandans from brutal deaths. Paul Rusesabagina, whose story is portrayed in the powerful and hopeful film Hotel Rwanda, reminds all of us what one person can accomplish when moved to act.

Hotel Rwanda addresses a horrific issue: genocide. This is a difficult and upsetting topic. Yet, as the film shows, while people and governments chose to ignore the 1994 Rwandan genocide, one individual bravely risked his life and stood up to the horror, calling upon all of his resources to first save his family, then ended up saving 1,268 helpless refugees.

Terry George, Hotel Rwanda's director, takes us on Paul's journey, showing the country's struggle and how the world turned a blind eye. He leads us in the end to a place of hope and promise.

The enclosed teacher's guide, a companion piece to the film, is produced by Amnesty International USA in cooperation with United Artists. This guide is intended for use by high school age students and can be used in the traditional classroom or a community setting.

The purpose of this educator's guide is to explore the history of the crisis and generate debate on strategies that could have been pursued to prevent the genocide. It is also a tool for analyzing what will be effective in the future as the international community confronts similar conditions.

This guide offers educators an opportunity to explore the idea of individual and collective responsibility. Two of the lessons included in this guide examine the role of the international community and the role of the media. The third lesson addresses the issue of transition – hope, accountability and how a country recovers from such a horrific event.

There are many questions that can be asked about how the genocide in Rwanda could have happened; the lessons in this guide seek to address some of those questions. A deeper and much more difficult issue to grapple with is that of the role of the individual. What moves any of us to action? What influences our actions and behaviors? How do we reconcile our inaction in the face of injustice? How do we mobilize others, and how do we tap into our own resources to create change?

Hotel Rwanda opens at a theater near you on January 3, 2004, and is an excellent way to start your school year with an opportunity to discuss and debate all of these important issues.

We have heard the phrase "never again," yet again today we see evidence of human tragedies. As you watch this movie, I hope you are troubled by what you see. I hope you are inspired by Paul's actions, I hope you are moved and you do whatever you can to ensure that never again truly means never again.

Peace,

Karen Robinson
Director, Human Rights Education Amnesty International USA
