Acculturation Ashraf Esmail,Abul Pitre,Alice Duhon-Ross McCallum,Judith Blakely,H. Prentice Baptiste,2023-04-17 The recent increase in immigration patterns in the United States has meant an increase in the number of children whose first language is not English entering American schools Some reports indicate that as many as one in four students come from families where the language spoken in the home is not English This book is focused on providing teachers access to credible information that will assist them understand the English language learner develop effective strategies to teach English language learners create effective learning environments and use assessments to meet the needs of English language learners as well as garner community resources to support for English language learners Academics' International Teaching Journeys Anesa Hosein,Namrata Rao,Chloe Shu-Hua Yeh,Ian M. Kinchin,2018-06-14 Academics International Teaching Journeys provides personal narratives of nine international social science academics in foreign countries as they adapt and develop their teaching The team of international contributors provide an invaluable resource for other academics who may be exposed to similar situations and may find these narratives useful in negotiating their own conflicts and challenges that they may encounter in being an international academic The narratives provide a fascinating reference point and a wide range of perspectives of teaching experiences from across the world including Europe Australia North America and the Caribbean The book offers a timely spotlight on contemporary issues of globalisation that many higher education institutions around the world may encounter It contributes to the originality of constructing new knowledge in the field of transnational higher education a modern phenomenon which will be increasingly prominent in the current and next generation in the globalised higher education contexts Refugee Background Students Transitioning Into Higher

Education Loshini Naidoo,Jane Wilkinson,Misty Adoniou,Kiprono Langat,2018-05-18 This book is one of the first of its kind to examine the aspirations of refugee background students and accompanies them as they journey through the on shore stage of settlement enrolment and participation in the Australian education system It begins with students experiences of on shore settlement followed by the move into schooling and finally the subsequent transition into Australian higher education

Transitioning into higher education is a challenge for many students particularly for those from under represented equity groups For refugee background students navigating in through and out of higher education can be particularly complex and challenging Drawing on rich case studies from longitudinal research into refugee youth and the academic and professional staff in schools and universities who support them the book provides powerful and compelling narratives and insights into this journey It untangles the complex nature of transition for students of refugee background in higher education locating it within broader social trends of increasing social and cultural diversity as well as government practices and policies concerning the educational resettlement of refugees Journeys in Argentine and Brazilian Cinema Natalia

Pinazza,2014-10-16 Many South American films that use the popular road movie format to examine regional culture and attitudes especially in Argentina and Brazil Pinazza performs a careful cultural analysis of the films and investigates how road movies deal with narratives on nationhood whilst simultaneously inserting themselves in a transnational dialogue

The Visual Turn and the Transformation of the Textbook James A. LaSpina, 2014-04-04 Is the emerging digital multimedia culture of today transforming the textbook or forever displacing it As new media of transmission enter the classroom the traditional textbook is now caught up in a dialogue reshaping the textual boundaries of the book and with it the traditional modes of cognition and learning which are bound more to language than to visual form Most of the important work in the past two decades in the field of curriculum has focused on the culture of the textbook A rich literature has evolved around textbooks as the traditional object of instructional activity This volume is an important contribution to this literature which focuses on the actual making of a textbook This design process serves as a metaphor that suggests new paradigms of learning and instruction in which text content is but one component in a multidimensional information space The Visual Turn is an exploration along the border of this new learning space transforming the traditional center of instruction in the classroom

Musical Variation Carlos de Lemos Almada, 2023-07-14 This book offers an in depth analysis of musical variation through a systematic approach heavily influenced by the principles of Grundgestalt and developed variations both created by the Austrian composer Arnold Schoenberg 1874 1951 The author introduces a new transformational derivative model and the theory that supports it specifically crafted for the examination of tonal music The idea for this book emerged during a sabbatical at Columbia University while the content is the product of extensive research conducted at the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro resulting in the development of the Model of Derivative Analysis This model places emphasis on the connections between musical entities rather than viewing them as separate entities As a case study the Intermezzo in A Major Op 118 2 by Brahms is selected for analysis The author s goal is to provide a formal and structured approach while maintaining the text s readability and appeal for both musicians and mathematicians in the field of music theory The book concludes with the author's recommendations for further research      Death in Winterreise Lauri Suurpää, 2014-01-06 Lauri Suurpää brings together two rigorous methodologies Greimassian semiotics and Schenkerian analysis to provide a unique perspective on the expressive power of Franz Schubert's song cycle Focusing on the final songs Suurpää deftly combines textual and tonal analysis to reveal death as a symbolic presence if not actual character in the musical narrative Suurpää demonstrates the incongruities between semantic content and musical representation as it surfaces throughout the final songs This close reading of the winter songs coupled with creative applications of theory and a thorough history of the poetic and musical genesis of this work brings new insights to the study of text music relationships and the song cycle      The Routledge International
