Giasson, Jean-Louis Gaudet, 1989-01-01 In English and French Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 1, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems. Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems. Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning. Most were not. Whether prepared or not, educators rose to the challenge. The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face-to-face environment. In fact, some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face-to-face model. As with all transitions, some things were lost while others were gained. This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century. The book is organized into four sections: The Perspectives of Higher Education, COVID as a Catalyst for Change, Embracing Online Learning as a Response to COVID, and Post-Covid The Way Forward. It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process. These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post-COVID. Higher education has been forever changed, and higher education as it once was may never return. While many questions arise, the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic.

This book presents critiques of participation in settings where young people are the centre of attention. The complexities and power dynamics of youth-adult relationships are observed and analysed in a wide diversity of study environments from Hull to Sao Paulo, rural Lesotho to Ghana, using varied methods and over different time frames but with a strong focus throughout on context, practice, impacts, and associated ethical considerations. The central concern of the book is not whether young people can produce better knowledge than adults but rather how to better understand the different knowledges which emerge from diverse actors within different generations in order to ensure that the maximum benefits accrue to children and young people with and for whom the research is conducted. This book was originally published as a special issue of Children's Geographies. Timescapes of Waiting, 2019-08-26 Timescapes of Waiting explores the intersections of temporality and space by examining various manifestations of spatial immobility. The individual articles approach these spaces from a variety of academic perspectives including the realms of history, architecture, law, and literary and cultural studies in order to probe the fluid relationships between power, time, and space. The contributors offer discussion and analysis of waiting spaces like ante chambers prisons hospitals and refugee camps and also of more elusive spaces such as communities and nation states Contributors Olaf Berwald Elise Brault Dreux Richard Hardack Kerstin Howaldt Robin Kellermann Amanda Lagji Margaret Olin Helmut Puff Katrin R der Christoph Singer Cornelia Wchter Robert Wirth Sheila Bagnall's Letters from Botswana, 1966-1974 Sheila Bagnall,2001
