L'Etat En Afrique La Politique Du Ventre Espace Du Politique:

L'Etat en Afrique Jean-François Bayart, 1989 Comprendre que les sociétés africaines sont comme les autres voilà ce qu'un siècle d'africanisme n'a guère facilité. L'opinion occidentale reste gorgée de stéréotypes sur le pouvoir et l'état en Afrique en particulier quant au rôle privilégié que la corruption et le tribalisme sont censés jouer au sud du Sahara. Certes les Africains parlent eux-mêmes ce propos de politique du ventre. Mais l'expression renvoie aussi bien qu'aux nécessités de la survie et de l'accumulation des représentations culturelles complexes notamment celles du monde de l'invisible de la sorcellerie. En d'autres termes la politique du ventre témoigne d'une trajectoire africaine du pouvoir qu'il faut comprendre la lumière de la longue durée. L'analyse des groupes sociaux qui se disputent l'état post colonial et des différents scénarios qui ont prévalu depuis la proclamation des indépendances permet d'avancer des hypothèses neuves sur la formation d'une classe dominante sur la dépendance des sociétés africaines vis-à-vis de leur environnement international sur la place déterminante en leur sein des stratégies individuelles et des modes populaires d'action politique sur l'importance des réseaux d'influence et des terroirs historiques dans le déroulement des conflits sur la récurrence des conduites souvent religieuses de dissidence sociale sur l'émergence de cultures politiques originales. En définitive cet essai de sociologie historique de l'état propose une lecture à la fois provocante et nuancée de ce qu'il est convenu de nommer le développement. Il ouvre aussi la voie à une réflexion plus générale sur l'invention du politique dans les sociétés d'Afrique et d'Asie.

Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond Daniel C. Bach, Mamoudou Gazibo, 2013-03-01 Neopatrimonialism is a system whereby rulers use state resources for personal benefit and to secure the loyalty of clients in the general population is central to any teaching or conceptualisation of contemporary African politics. This book is a theoretical and comparative study of neopatrimonialism in Africa and across world regions. Although such practices are widespread in other parts of the world the African neopatrimonial state has also become a global prototype of the anti developmental state. This volume calls for a reappraisal of the genesis and interpretations of the concepts of patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism. Expert contributors consider recent debates in Africa through the study of democracy clientelism the big man syndrome Kenya the rise of godfatherism Nigeria warlordism Liberia and the neopatrimonial state on a day to day basis Niger. They discuss patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism from Latin America to Europe Central Asia and Asia Pacific to weave a comparative analysis of the interplay between public policies and private interest. Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond is an important and timely volume that will be of interest to students and scholars of international politics African studies sociology and international development.

Les enjeux politiques de l'Église en Afrique Léonard Amossou Katchekpele, 2016-11-25 Il y a des livres qui ont marqué la théologie africaine. La présente contribution une théologie du politique a de fortes chances de prendre rang parmi les ouvrages qui font virer le débat en renouvelant les termes. La recherche menée dans ce livre est un exercice au sens plein du terme une expérience de pensée dont l'audace dans la pastorale courante risquerait de choquer ou pire de tomber plat. De quoi s'agit-il donc sinon de questionner des a priori qui sont loin d'être propres à l'Afrique sur la fonction de l'état et la mission des chrétiens et de reprendre pied sur l'essentiel la raison et la foi Vers quoi nous mène alors la radicalité du propos tenu Vers la révision de la théologie politique L'alliance du trône et de l'autel a donné lieu deux interprétations qui sont l'avant et le revers l'une de l'autre ce que Mgr Arquillière a nommé en 1934 l'augustinisme politique la tendance absorber le droit naturel de l'état dans la justice surnaturelle et le droit ecclésiastique mais aussi la justification par l'état de sa légitimité avec l'appui de la force morale de l'église Ces ambiguïtés reciproques ce sont elles que ce livre s'emploie à décrire Le pouvoir l'état l'empire se comportent comme s'ils étaient les mandants de la puissance divine et exigent ce titre la coopération de l'église moins que ce ne soient des représentants du clergé et des chrétiens troublés qui le comprennent ainsi Une autre interprétation est-elle possible Oui mais par une église qui ne chercherait pas la puissance et qui avec les moyens faibles des temps moins de l'évangile se ferait accueil et partage extrait de la préface de Ren Heyer The Oxford Handbook of French Politics Robert Elgie, Emiliano Grossman, Amy G. Mazur, 2016-11-24 The Oxford Handbook of French Politics provides a comprehensive and comparative overview of the French political system through the lens of political science The Handbook is organized into three parts the first part identifies foundational concepts for the French case including chapters on republicanism and social welfare the second part focuses on thematic large scale processes such as identity governance and globalization while the third part examines a wide range of issues relating to substantive politics and policy among which are chapters on political representation political culture social movements economic policy gender policy and defense and security policy The volume brings together established and emerging scholars and seeks to examine the French political system from a comparative perspective The contributors provide a state of the art review both of the comparative scholarly literature and the study of the French case making The Oxford Handbook of French Politics an invaluable resource for anyone interested in the foundations of contemporary political life in France L'ancien et le Nouveau. La production du savoir dans l'Afrique d'aujourd'hui Hountondji, Paulin J., 2013-10-25 How are the old and the new expressed in the field of knowledge and know how What did we know yesterday and what do we know today What was yesterday and what is today the mythical part in what we believe we know And how do we define in each case the core of concrete and universally valid knowledges What rights and duties do we acclaim as human beings as women as children as peoples or nations and what understanding do we today have of these rights and duties What is the impact of what we today call globalisation on the evolution of knowledge know how and the awareness of such rights and duties To these questions and to other related ones this book provides some answers It is the result of a conference held in Cotonou in October 2006 on the theme Traditional knowledges and modern science It is dedicated to the memory of Georg Elwert a German Africanist who passed away in 2005 and whose work on Benin Africa and the Third World remains a source of inspiration for many The Arts of Citizenship in African Cities M. Diouf, R. Fredericks, 2014-12-16 The Arts of Citizenship in African Cities pushes the frontiers of how we understand cities and citizenship and offers new perspectives on African urbanism Nuanced ethnographic analyses of life in an array of African cities illuminate the emergent infrastructures and spaces of belonging through which urban lives and politics are being forged

Ex-Combatants and International Statebuilding Nathalie Duclos, 2024-06-07 This book examines the international efforts to regulate violence in Kosovo since 1999 through the United Nations Mission in Kosovo UNMIK and covers 15 years of international presence The book analyses the process of implementing international policies from a sociological perspective and looks at the adaptations and arrangements of public policies achieved through the transactions of international actors with local actors who are at the heart of policy implementation In particular it analyses the disarmament demobilisation and reintegration of combatants DDR programme and shows the extent to which it was co produced with Kosovo Liberation Army KLA leaders co opted by international administrators These analyses take the opposite view to the work that considers ex combatants as spoilers In Kosovo the combatant leaders acted as peace brokers facilitating demobilisation and exercising disciplinary control over rank and file combatants Their position as brokers helped them to take control of the new state being built under international administration This book shows the importance of the relationship between ex combatants and the state and illustrates the multiplicity of their possible trajectories including political ones To elucidate the dynamics of co production in shaping DDR policies and hybridising international policies as well as in state formation the book relies on around a hundred interviews with ex combatants of the KLA and with international personnel as well as on the archives of international organisations and observations in the field This book will be of much interest to students of international statebuilding peace and conflict studies Balkan politics and international relations

Collective Mobilisations in Africa / Mobilisations collectives en Afrique, 2015-06-02 This book uses empirical research to bring together a broad range of protest contexts in twelve chapters From the formation of Maroon societies in the early colonial period to female mobilisation in authoritarian contexts via urban youth culture women or mineworkers in trade unionism as well as pro and anti gay rights activists the protagonists here all insist upon their rights to protest in a variety of ways Sometimes popular protest is expressed through religion often and sometimes violently by young people exasperated by their long wait for social achievement Electoral wars and the formation of militias reveal a geography of violence in urban areas which in some sectarian excesses can be displaced to rural areas as described in the study on Boko Haram Cet ouvrage regroupe un ventail comprenant douze contextes de contestation De la formation de communautés marronnes au début de la colonisation aux mobilisations féminines en contexte autoritaire en passant par les cultures urbaines les cultures syndicales des femmes et des travailleurs dans les mines les contestations pro ou contre la liberté des homosexuels tous font valoir leur pouvoir de contestation de manière plurielle La voie religieuse est un domaine où s'exerce parfois de manière violente les protestations de populations souvent jeunes en attente de mobilité sociale Les guerres électorales et la constitution de milices dessinent une géographie de la violence en milieu urbain violence qui trouve ses

The Business of Development in Post-Colonial Africa Véronique Dimier, Sarah Stockwell, 2021-03-13 This collection brings together a range of case studies by both established and early career scholars to consider the nexus between business and development in post colonial Africa A number of contributors examine the involvement of European companies most notably those of former colonial powers in development in various African states at the end of empire and in the early post colonial era They explore how businesses were not just challenged by the new international landscape but benefited from the opportunities it offered particularly those provided by development aid Other contributors focus on the development agencies of the departing colonial powers to consider how far these served to promote the interests of European companies Together these case studies constitute an important contribution to our understanding of both business and development in post colonial Africa redressing an imbalance in existing histories of both business and development which focus predominantly on the colonial period This volume breaks new ground as one of the very first to bring the study of foreign companies and development aid into the same frame of analysis

Identity, Justice and Resistance in the Neoliberal City Gülçin Erdi, Yıldırım Şentürk, 2017-08-31 This book details the current neoliberal restructuring of cities and its impact on the rise and spread of resistance and uprisings in different cities throughout the world Through close ethnographic study the authors illuminate the strategies adopted for everyday life that have evolved in response to the neoliberal managing of cities by which the city is shaped by market forces rather than by the needs of its inhabitants In the light of many urban movements uprisings and forms of resistance observed in such diverse countries as Brazil Turkey the USA Greece and Spain since the Arab uprising of 2011 this collection makes an original contribution to urban sociology and social geography by developing a spatial approach to understanding how the city shapes identities and perceptions of in justice This innovative volume will be of interest to readers across the social sciences

The State of Post-conflict Reconstruction Naseem Badiy, 2014 Naseem Badiy examines the local dynamics of the emerging capital city of Juba Southern Sudan during the historically pivotal transition period following the 2005 Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA Focusing on the

intersections of land tenure reform and urban development she challenges the dominant paradigm of post conflict reconstruction and re conceptualizes state building as a social process underpinned by negotiation Badiey explores local resistance to reconstruction programmes debates over the interpretation of peace settlements and competing claims to land and resources not as problems to be solved through interventions but as negotiations of authority which are fundamental to shaping the character of the state While donors and aid agency officials anticipated clashes between the Government of Sudan and the Sudan People s Liberation Movement SPLM following the CPA they did not foresee internal divisions that impeded reconstruction in Southern Sudan raising serious questions about the viability of an independent state In Juba local elites interpreted the CPA in line with their economic and political interests using claims to land authority and political power to challenge the SPLM s agenda for urban reconstruction In revealing how local actors strategically interpreted the framework of land rights in Southern Sudan the book offers a basis for understanding the challenges that confront the nascent South Sudan s state builders and their international partners in the future NASEEM BADIEY is Assistant Professor of International Development and Humanitarian Action at California State University Monterey Bay Les gens du pouvoir à Madagascar - Etat postcolonial, légitimités et territoire (1956-2002) GALIBERT Didier, 2009-06-01 Securitising Decolonisation Julius Heise, 2024-05-06 With the right to petition the United Nations the Ewe and Togoland unification movement enjoyed a privilege unmatched by other dependent peoples Using language conveying insecurity the movement seized the international spotlight ensuring that the topic of unification dominated the UN Trusteeship System for over a decade Yet its vociferous securitisations fell silent due to colonial distortion leaving unification unfulfilled thus allowing the seeds of secessionist conflict to grow At the intersection of postcolonial theory and security studies Julius Heise presents a theory driven history of Togoland s path to independence offering a crucial lesson for international statebuilding efforts
