Dear Mr. Raminsky,

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. I am a really big fan of your work. Your film Pains of Leo Jim portrayed the trials and tribulations of American soldiers in World War II in a such a profound and effective way. My grandfather fought in that war, and the perspective you presented really helped me see his experiences in a whole new light.

I am writing to request your autograph and have included a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience. I appreciate the work that you do, and I sincerely thank you in advance for taking the time to send me an autograph.

Sincerely,
Jacob Smith

The Inscription of Things Thomas Kelly, 2023-11-14 Why would an inkstone have a poem inscribed on it Early modern Chinese writers did not limit themselves to working with brushes and ink and their texts were not confined to woodblock printed books or the boundaries of the paper page Poets carved lines of verse onto cups ladles animal horns seashells walking sticks boxes fans daggers teapots and musical instruments Calligraphers left messages on the implements ordinarily used for writing on paper These inscriptions terse compositions in verse or epigrammatic prose relate in complex ways to the objects on which they are written Thomas Kelly develops a new account of the relationship between Chinese literature and material culture by examining inscribed objects from the late Ming and early to mid Qing dynasties He considers how the literary qualities of inscriptions interact with the visual and physical properties of the things that bear them Kelly argues that inscribing an object became a means for authors to grapple with the materiality and technologies of writing Facing profound social upheavals from volatility in the marketplace to the violence of dynastic transition writers turned to inscriptions to reflect on their investments in and dependence on the permanence of the written word Shedding new light on cultures of writing in early modern China The Inscription of Things broadens understandings of the links between the literary and the material
