Basketball Coach Letter of Recommendation

April 21, 2050

Leo Scott

Athletic Coach

Quantum Academy

158 School Ave

Greenfield, CA 93927

Dear Mr. Scott,

I am delighted to confidently recommend Jordan Thompson as a candidate for any student-athlete considerations within your organization. I have had the pleasure of coaching Jordan for the past four years at Greenfield High School, where his dedication, teamwork, and coachability have consistently stood out.

Jordan's performance on the court is exceptional, but his attitude and work ethic truly set him apart. He is always eager to learn, takes constructive criticism positively, and

Branch Rickey Lee Lowenfish, 2022-08-15 He was not much of a player and not much more of a manager but by the time Branch Rickey 1881-1965 finished with baseball he had revolutionized the sport not just once but three times In this definitive biography of Rickey the man sportswriters dubbed The Brain The Mahatma and on occasion El Cheapo Lee Lowenfish tells the full and colorful story of a life that forever changed the face of America's game As the mastermind behind the Saint Louis Cardinals from 1917 to 1942 Rickey created the farm system which allowed small market clubs to compete with the rich and powerful Under his direction in the 1940s the Brooklyn

Dodgers became truly the first American team. By signing Jackie Robinson and other black players he single handedly thrust baseball into the forefront of the civil rights movement. Lowenfish evokes the peculiarly American complex of God, family and baseball that informed Rickey's actions and his accomplishments. His book offers an intriguing, richly detailed portrait of a man whose life is itself a crucial chapter in the history of American business, sport and society. Michigan Ross School of Business George Siedel, 2024-12-16

How did a new business school with twenty-two students in 1924 evolve into a world-class leader in management education a century later? Who were the school's legendary faculty members who revolutionized the accounting profession, influenced public policy decisions by US presidents, created the vocabulary that shapes business strategy and more? What role does the school's location within a world-renowned university and a popular college town play in the school's success? These and other questions are answered as Professor George Siedel presents the history and stories that reveal the commitment of the University of Michigan Ross School of Business to building a better world through business. This book is a must-read for prospective and current U of M and Ross students, alumni and faculty, business executives and entrepreneurs, university and business school leaders and members of the Ann Arbor community. Fascinating history, engaging stories, excellent writing by a great professor. B. Joseph White, President Emeritus, University of Illinois and Dean Emeritus, University of Michigan. A necessary read not just for those interested in the history of Michigan Ross but also for those seeking to develop an understanding of how great institutions are built. Gautam Ahuja, Eleanora and George Landew Professor of Management, Cornell University. I hope that others will find inspiration here to aim high in their work and so doing fill the pages of another book like this in 50 or 100 years. Jim Walsh, Gerald and Esther Carey Professor of Business Administration, University of Michigan and Past President, Academy of Management. With meticulous research and gifted storytelling, Siedel evokes the majesty of Michigan Ross and distills the ingredients of its success. Leigh Anenson, Professor, University of Maryland and Past President, Academy of Legal Studies in Business. An amazing contribution both to Ross and to the University. I stayed up most of the night reading the book and could not put it down. William Hall, Chicago-based entrepreneur and former Professor, University of Michigan. George Siedel details the century-long history of this remarkable magnificent institution with grace, fidelity and yes even love. Tim Fort, Eveleigh Professor of Business Ethics, Indiana University. Siedel masterfully chronicles Ross's founding and evolution while explaining how its faculty, administrators and alumni have fulfilled the school's enduring mission of building a better world through business. Tom Highley, Managing Partner, Cordis Capital Partners. Reading this book has been a tremendous educational journey for me. Brian Wu, Robert G. Rodkey Professor of Business Administration, University of Michigan. A delightful book honoring the school's 100th anniversary. Frank Wilhelme, former Assistant Dean of Development and Alumni Relations, Michigan Ross School of Business. What a tour de force. Dennis Severance, Accenture Professor of Computer and Information Systems, Emeritus, University of Michigan.

The Search Thomas Ehrlich, 2024-06-25 Buddy Knowland was dead, keeled over with a heart attack during the game Buddy's fans knew him as the most successful football coach in Nebraska State University history. His colleagues knew him as a misogynistic, foul-mouthed bully. Replacing Buddy would be one of the biggest tests that Charlie Rosen, the president of Nebraska State University, would face during his career. How to hire a replacement for the irreplaceable coach? How to keep the university trustees happy? And how to deal with the ghost of Buddy, which keeps hanging around the office? With his job on the line, Rosen must pull out all the stops. All in all, just an average day in the life of a university president. The Search is the first novel written by Indiana University President Emeritus Thomas Ehrlich. Although almost entirely fictional, it illustrates the competing pressures faced daily by university presidents around the country, particularly as they struggle to maintain the primacy of academics over athletics.

California. Court of Appeal (1st Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Ethics of Sport and Athletics Robert C. Schneider, 2021-03-05. Timely, accessible, and focused on practical application, Ethics of Sport: Athletics Theory, Issues, and Applications, Second Edition, details the theories and mechanics of moral reasoning, ethical and unethical behavior in sport, and the development of moral education through sport. This well-organized, case-based approach to sport-related dilemmas teaches readers how to successfully apply moral reasoning skills in good decision-making to ensure confidence in sports management. Extensively updated with real-world examples drawn from the latest sports headlines, this Second Edition is designed to help readers grapple with the many complicated ethical challenges they'll encounter in today's sports professions, including performance enhancement, violence in sports, and racial and gender discrimination. An expanded emphasis on applying knowledge and concepts in sport management further equips readers to confront specific scenarios, ultimately improving the overall moral integrity of sport without diminishing its competitive element.

Pay for Play Ronald A. Smith, 2011. In an era when college football coaches frequently command higher salaries than university presidents, many call for reform to restore the balance between amateur athletics and the educational mission of schools. This book traces attempts at college athletics reform from 1855 through the early twenty-first century while analyzing the different roles played by students, faculty, conferences, university presidents, the NCAA legislatures, and the Supreme Court. Pay for Play: A History of Big Time College Athletic Reform also tackles critically important questions about eligibility, compensation, recruiting, sponsorship, and rules enforcement. Discussing reasons for reform to combat corruption, level the playing field, and to make sports more accessible to minorities and women, Ronald A. Smith candidly explains why attempts at change have often failed. Of interest to historians, athletic reformers, college administrators, NCAA officials, and sports journalists, this thoughtful book considers the difficulty in balancing the principles of amateurism with the need to draw income from sporting events.
