Go Be a Writer! Candace R. Kuby,Tara Gutshall Rucker,2016-04-15 This book provides an introduction to poststructural and posthumanist theories in order to imagine new possibilities for expanding literacy education The authors put to work these theories in the context of an elementary school classroom examining literacy based activities that occur as students participate with materials in a multimedia writers studio Focusing on literacy processes the book emphasizes the fluid and sometimes unintentional ways multimodal artifacts come into being through intra actions with human and nonhuman materials Because these theories emphasize the unplanned nonlinear aspects of literacy the authors demonstrate an approach to literacy that works against the grain of standardization and rigid curricular models Go Be a Writer reveals that when educators appreciate the value of unscripted intra actions they allow for more authentic learning Small Loom & Freeform Weaving Barbara Matthiessen,2011-01-04 30 projects for home decor and fashion accents Yarn arts and felting are two of today s most popular crafts and popularity for weaving a natural extension of those crafts is growing Small hand held looms and tabletop looms are now available at yarn shops and hobby craft stores and readers of Small Loom and Freeform Weaving can even construct looms themselves using common household materials Most looms can be constructed in a couple minutes and can be reused numerous times This book will also show readers how to use their looms Included are 30 projects some of which can easily be completed in an evening or weekend Readers will enjoy step by step diagrammed instructions for personal items such as iPod and cell phone holders scarves purses and jewelry and home decor projects such as pillows table runners wall hangings and book covers
