Men Forced To Become Women:

The First Man-Made Man Pagan Kennedy, 2008-03-04 A portrait of the first post operative female to male Michael Dillon describes how Laura Dillon felt like a man trapped in a woman's body her efforts to feel comfortable in her own skin her experimentation with medical technologies and procedures that would revolutionize medicine and her life following surgery in a story that captures the struggles of early transsexuals Reprint The Best of Anthropology Today Jonathan Benthall, 2013-10-11 The articles in this influential journal placed it in the thick of a turbulent period for anthropology Reacting to current research interests and launching what were often heated debates it set the agenda for disciplinary change and new research Once described the American Anthropological Association as creating a strong voice for anthropology in the public arena the Founder Editor Jonathan Benthall introduces here a personal selection of articles and letters with his own candid retrospect arguing that the discipline's greatest strength and potential lies in testing and refining the ideas of other disciplines Once described by the American Anthropological Association as creating a strong voice for anthropology in the public arena the founder editor Jonathan Benthall introduces here a personal selection of articles and letters with his own candid retrospect arguing that the discipline's greatest strength and potential lies in telling and refining the ideas of other disciplines Woman I Was Not Born To Be Aleshia Brevard, 2011-01-19 Told with humor and flair this is the autobiography of one transsexual's wild ride from boyhood as Alfred Brevard Buddy Crenshaw in rural Tennessee to voluptuous female entertainer in Hollywood Aleshia Brevard as she is now known underwent transitional surgery in Los Angeles in 1962 one of the first such operations in the United States The famous sexual surgery pioneer Harry Benjamin himself broke the news to Brevard's parents Under the stage name Lee Shaw Brevard worked as a drag queen at Finocchio's a San Francisco club doing Marilyn Monroe impersonations Like Marilyn she sought romance all the time and had a string of entanglements with men Later she worked as a stripper in Reno and as a Playboy Bunny at the Sunset Strip hutch After playing opposite Don Knotts in the movie The Love God Brevard appeared in other films and broke into TV as a regular on the Red Skelton Show She created the role of Tex on the daytime soap opera One Life To Live As a woman Brevard returned to teach theater at East Tennessee State the same university she had attended as a boy This memoir is a rare pre Women's Movement account of coming to terms with gender identity Brevard writes frankly about the degree to which she organized her life around pleasing men and how absurd it all seems to her now American Dream, American Nightmare Kathryn Hume, 2022-08-15 In this celebration of contemporary American fiction Kathryn Hume explores how estrangement from America has shaped the fiction of a literary generation which she calls the Generation of the Lost Dream In breaking down the divisions among standard categories of race religion ethnicity and gender Hume identifies shared core concerns values and techniques among seemingly disparate and unconnected writers including T Coraghessan Boyle Ralph Ellison Russell Banks Gloria Naylor Tim O'Brien Maxine Hong Kingston Walker Percy N Scott Momaday John Updike Toni Morrison William

Kennedy Julia Alvarez Thomas Pynchon Leslie Marmon Silko and Don DeLillo Hume explores fictional treatments of the slippage in the immigrant experience between America's promise and its reality She exposes the political link between contemporary stories of lost innocence and liberalism's inadequacies She also invites us to look at the literary challenge to scientific materialism in various searches for a spiritual dimension in life The expansive future promised by the American Dream has been replaced Hume finds by a sense of tarnished morality and a melancholy loss of faith in America's exceptionalism American Dream American Nightmare examines the differing critiques of America embedded in nearly a hundred novels and points to the source for recovery that appeals to many of the authors

On Strike and on Film Ellen R. Baker, 2012-09-01 In 1950 Mexican American miners went on strike for fair working conditions in Hanover New Mexico When an injunction prohibited miners from picketing their wives took over the picket lines an unprecedented act that disrupted mining families but ultimately ensured the strikers victory in 1952 In On Strike and on Film Ellen Baker examines the building of a leftist union that linked class justice to ethnic equality She shows how women s participation in union activities paved the way for their taking over the picket lines and thereby forcing their husbands and the union to face troubling questions about gender equality Baker also explores the collaboration between mining families and blacklisted Hollywood filmmakers that resulted in the controversial 1954 film Salt of the Earth She shows how this worker artist alliance gave the mining families a unique chance to clarify the meanings of the strike in their own lives and allowed the filmmakers to create a progressive alternative to Hollywood productions An inspiring story of working class solidarity Mexican American dignity and women s liberation Salt of the Earth was itself blacklisted by powerful anticommunists yet the movie has endured as a vital contribution to American cinema
