An extraordinary collection of beautiful ceramic objects that reflect the intimate connection between pottery and village life across the African continent Masquerades in African Society Walter E. A. Van Beek,Harrie M. Leyten,2023 What is the meaning of masks and masquerades in African traditions and how can we understand their role in rituals and performances Why do we find masks in some African regions and not in others and what does this mask habitat say about the general dynamics of masquerades in Africa Though masks are among the most famous art icons of Africa exploration of their uses and the way in which they articulate social characteristics of African societies has been underexamined This book takes an anthropological perspective on the phenomenon of masquerades on the African continent to show how mask rituals are an integral part of African indigenous religions and societies and are informed by and linked to specific types of social and ecological conditions Having established the commonalities of mask rituals and a mask typology the authors look at the varieties of mask performances and the types of rituals in which masks function in rites of passage and in rituals of gender power and identity The Shape of Belief Mary Nooter Roberts,Allen F. Roberts,Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco,1996 The catalogue of an exhibit at the Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco November 1996 to April 1997 illustrating in color 70 objects donated to the museum by art collector Heide Also includes an essay on the art forms and cultures and map of West Africa Distributed by U of Washington Press Annot
