The Teeth May Smile but the Heart Does Not Forget Andrew Rice, 2025-10-16 From a new star of American journalism a riveting murder mystery that reveals the forces roiling today's Africa From Rwanda to Sierra Leone African countries recovering from tyranny and war are facing an impossible dilemma to overlook past atrocities for the sake of peace or to seek catharsis through tribunals and truth commissions Uganda chose the path of forgetting after Idi Amin's reign was overthrown the new government opted for amnesty for his henchmen rather than prolonged conflict Ugandans tried to bury their history but reminders of the truth were never far from view A stray clue to the 1972 disappearance of Eliphaz Laki led his son to a shallow grave and then to three executioners among them Amin's chief of staff Laki's discovery resulted in a trial that gave voice to a nation's past as lawyers argued tribes clashed and Laki pressed for justice the trial offered Ugandans a promise of the reckoning they had been so long denied For four years Andrew Rice followed the trial crossing Uganda to investigate Amin's legacy and the limits of reconciliation At once a mystery a historical accounting and a portrait of modern Africa The Teeth May Smile But the Heart Does Not Forget is above all an exploration of how and whether the past can be laid to rest One of Kirkus Reviews Best Books of 2009

Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa Pundy Pillay, 2010 This nine country study of higher education financing in Africa includes three East African states Kenya Tanzania and Uganda five countries in southern Africa Botswana Lesotho Mozambique Namibia and South Africa and an Indian Ocean island state Mauritius Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa explores trends in financing policies paying particular attention to the nature and extent of public sector funding of higher education the growth of private financing including both household financing and the growth of private higher education institutions and the changing mix of financing instruments that these countries are developing in response to public sector financial constraints This unique collection of African country case studies draws attention to the remaining challenges around the financing of higher education in Africa but also identifies good practices lessons and common themes

Africa Who's who, 1991

Financing Access and Equity in Higher Education, 2019-02-11 The demand for higher education worldwide is booming Governments want well educated citizens and knowledge workers but are scrambling for funds The capacity of the public sector to provide increased and equitable access to higher education is seriously challenged What are the on the ground realities of developing financial resources and policies to meet the twin goals of equity and access without jeopardizing quality This volume provides in depth reports from selected countries and sub regions Morocco Korea England Uganda Poland Oman East and southern Africa Southeast Asia Brazil and Egypt Each chapter is written by a seasoned educator participating in the Fulbright New Century Scholar program for 2007 2008 Given the near universal constraints of declining resources but increasing enrollments the authors identify common trends such as the public private divide the privatization of the public sector and diversification of funding To address these issues the chapters examine a surprising

variety of policy instruments such as means testing targeted subsidies cost sharing institutional aid student bursaries and tax exemptions

Financing Higher Education D. Bruce Johnstone, 2006-01-01 Public systems of higher education worldwide are caught between increasing public and private demand for their products rising per student costs and flat or even declining governmental revenues Thus the fundamental condition of higher education especially in the low and middle income countries is dominated by the radically diverging trajectories of higher education costs and available governmental revenues underscoring the worldwide search for other than governmental revenue sources for higher education This is the higher educational austerity rationale for cost sharing which term reflects both the simple fact that the underlying costs of higher education are shared by governments or taxpayers parents students and philanthropists as well as a description of a worldwide policy trend of these costs being increasingly shifted from governments to parents and students The underlying theory of cost sharing as well as the description of its worldwide reach were developed from 1986 through 2006 mainly by the works of Johnstone and his Ford Foundation financed International Higher Education Finance and Accessibility Project at the State University of New York at Buffalo The principal papers from this project are reproduced in this volume They examine the worldwide shift in the burden of higher education costs from governments and taxpayers to parents and students and the policies of grants loans and other governmental interventions designed to maintain higher educational accessibility in the face of this shift

The Routledge International Handbook of Higher Education Malcolm Tight, Ka Ho Mok, Jeroen Huisman, Christopher Morphew, 2009-06-03 This volume is a detailed and up to date reference work providing an authoritative overview of the main issues in higher education around the world today Consisting of newly commissioned chapters and impressive journal articles it surveys the state of the discipline and includes the examination and discussion of emerging controversial and cutting edge areas

The Presbyterian , 1905 The Law Times , 1961 Women's Access to Higher Education in Africa Joy C. Kwesiga, 2002 This book addresses the gender divide in access to higher education and the Ugandan situation It examines theories of girls education human capital gender inequality and gender development bringing views from Africa and its institutions to debates often constructed and conducted in the West Whilst commending the work of women s movements and NGO s in furthering the educational cause it criticises fashionable neo liberal economic educational policies which are diverting resources not institutions thus diminishing local universities and women The volume also presents the results of a survey of female undergraduates at the University of Makerere which give rise to discussions about family societal and institutional influences on women s access to higher education This is a welcome book on women in higher education written by an African female academic insider and popular and outstanding contributor to the progress of women in higher education in East Africa
