attacks conducted in the name of pacifying Arab pirates Throughout the 1800s the British secured this crucial geopolitical arena transforming it into both a crossroads of land and sea and a borderland guarding British India's western flank Establishing this informal imperial system involved a triangle of actors in London the subcontinent and the Gulf region itself By the nineteenth century's end amid renewed waves of inter imperial competition this nexus of British interests and narratives in the Gulf region would occasion the appearance of a new name the Middle East Charting the spatial political and cultural emergence of the Middle East Inventing the Middle East reveals the deep roots of the twentieth century's geographic upheavals

The Chautauquan, 1892 Telling Migrant Stories Esteban E. Loustaunau, Lauren E. Shaw, 2021-11-02 This book is a collection of edited theoretical essays on the power of contemporary documentary film to voice the social agency of Latin American immigrants to the United States and Europe and to reveal some of the global systemic conditions that generate mass migrations and lead to the dehumanization of undocumented immigrants Linking the function of documentary to represent immigrants as performing agents whose voices generally are not heard publicly this volume also features interviews with prominent documentarians whose films and videos respond to conditions of migration from a variety of perspectives

The Ladies' Repository, 1857 Re-thinking Religious Pluralism Bindu Puri, Abhishek Kumar, 2020-12-16 This book combines the mainstream liberal arguments for religious tolerance with arguments from religious traditions in India to offer insights into appropriate attitudes toward religious others from the perspective of the devout The respective chapters address the relationship between religions from a comparative perspective helping readers understand the meaning of religion and the opportunities for interreligious dialogue in the works of contemporary Indian philosophers such as Gandhi and Ramakrishna Paramhansa It also examines various religious traditions from a philosophical viewpoint in order to reassess religious discussions on how to respond to differing and different religious others Given its comprehensive coverage the book is of interest to scholars working in the areas of anthropology philosophy cultural and religious diversity and history of religion

Adapted for the Screen Hsiu-Chuang Deppman, 2010-04-30 Contemporary Chinese films are popular with audiences worldwide but a key reason for their success has gone unnoticed many of the films are adapted from brilliant literary works This book is the first to put these landmark films in the context of their literary origins and explore how the best Chinese directors adapt fictional narratives and styles for film Hsiu Chuang Deppman unites aesthetics with history in her argument that the rise of cinema in China Hong Kong and Taiwan in the late 1980s was partly fueled by burgeoning literary movements Fifth Generation director Zhang Yimou's highly acclaimed films Red Sorghum Raise the Red Lantern and To Live are built on the experimental works of Mo Yan Su Tong and Yu Hua respectively Hong Kong new wave s Ann Hui and Stanley Kwan capitalized on the irresistible visual metaphors of Eileen Chang s postrealism Hou Xiaoxian s new Taiwan cinema turned to fiction by Huang Chunming and Zhu Tianwen for fine grained perspectives on class and gender relations Delving equally into the individual approaches of directors and writers Deppman initiates readers into the exciting possibilities emanating from the world of Chinese cinema The seven in depth studies include a diverse array of forms cinematic adaptation of literature literary adaptation of film auto adaptation and non narrative adaptation and a variety of genres martial arts melodrama romance autobiography documentary drama Complementing this formal diversity is a geographical range that far exceeds the cultural linguistic and physical boundaries of China The directors represented here also work in the U S and Europe and reflect the growing international resources of Chinese language cinema With her sophisticated blend of stylistic and historical analyses Deppman brings much needed nuance to current conversations about the politics of gender class and race in the work of the most celebrated Chinese writers and directors Her pioneering study will appeal to all readers general and academic who have an interest in Chinese literature cinema and culture

Sophia's Flight David Gomez,2024-04-16 Uncertainty and unpredictability greatly irritate and confound our young protagonist Still with the help of her loving and creative mother she will manage to find the solution that allows her to enjoy each day Sophia is a dragonfly born with one wing smaller than the other That doesn t stop her from flying fast and performing countless tricks her favorite pastime But there s something that makes her feel restless anxious and uncomfortable every day Sophia needs to have everything under control and know what will happen at every moment after every task Sophia tirelessly asks her mother what will they do next again and again without finding the true peace she needs in the answers her mother provides For her tranquility her creative loving and patient mother will devise a foolproof plan that will allow her to relax and enjoy what she loves the most An extraordinary resource is presented as an illustrated album to address functional diversity and its particularities family support and the instinct to overcome challenges it is also a story of family coexistence parenting and motherhood As the story is not explicitly narrated from the perspective of autism or functional diversity it allows any young reader to empathize with the impatience of its restless protagonist
