

THEMES/TOPICS IN FAHRENHEIT 451

Themes/Topics

- A. Mass Media Mass media obscures real life's experiences and interferes with the characters' ability to think deeply about their own lives.
- B. Censorship By making widespread censorship a phenomenon that emerges from the culture itself—and not one that is simply imposed from the government—Bradbury is expressing a concern that the power of mass media can ultimately suppress free speech as thoroughly as any totalitarian regime, like Hitler's.
- C. Conformity vs. Individuality In the society of Fahrenheit 451 most people conform to a pleasure-seeking lifestyle whereby thinking and self-expression are considered dangerous to the norm. Therefore, anyone who professes his or her individuality is seen as a threat to society.
- D. Distraction vs. Happiness The people of F451 equate pleasure-seeking and distraction with happiness. However, the novel makes the case that one who one pursues engaging with difficult or uncomfortable thoughts can people achieve a real and meaningful relationship with the world and with each other. These real relationships lead to true happiness.
- E. Action vs. Reaction F451 was published in 1953, just a few years after World War II—a time of great danger and intolerance-ended. The novel is concerned with the idea of taking action versus standing by while society falters. Some characters act while others passively allow the world to happen to them.
