

Math 9 Cumulative Exam Review

Name: _____

Details: The Math 9 Exam is a cumulative exam, meaning it will cover all of the units we have covered in class since September. You will be given the entire 2 hour exam length to complete the exam and be provided calculators, rulers, protractors as well as formulas you have been provided for tests and assignments. To succeed in this exam, it is of great importance that you review your notes, practice review questions, as well as review previous assessments to determine where your studying could be best focused.

The exam is worth 30% of your final grade. To determine what you need on the exam to obtain your ideal mark in the course on the report card, complete the following calculation:

$$\% \text{ Needed on the exam to obtain ideal grade} = \frac{(\text{Ideal grade}) - (\text{Current grade} \times 0.70)}{30} \times 100\%$$

Great Resources for Study Preparation in order to Succeed:

1. Review notes and study material.
2. Review examples in the Math 9 textbook for areas you had trouble with throughout the year.
3. Review and recomplete Assignments, Test Review Assignments, Quizzes, and Tests (ignore the answers and see if you can obtain the correct answer).
4. Complete entire Exam Review package.
5. Using the website below, which shows each outcome broken down over the year, examples of how to complete the problems, as well as links in each outcome with 5-10 practice questions and feedback:

<https://ca.ixl.com/standards/alberta/math/grade-9>

Your username should be your last name, first initial of first name, then 784. Password: mroutlon

Ex: John Smith would be: username: smithj784, password: mroutlon

6. Scheduling time with Mr. Oulton if you are having difficulty (do this well in advance of the Exam date, you cannot expect to review the entire year the day before the Exam). Alternatively if you have quick questions, you can email Mr. Oulton at oultonr@ccrsb.ca with questions (will reply within 24 hours, usually a lot earlier).

Study hard and you will do great 😊
